MEDICINAL PRESTIGE.

Age and experience are correlative. One without the other is impossible.

The fact that we have been successfully catering to the medicinal needs of Lowell and vicinity for the past 40 years means something to the individual.

It means that we have gained a reputation of nearly half a century's standing. That that reputation is the strongest guarantee to the public. That it secures to the purchaser the purity and high character of medicines and square dealing. That in order to secure such standing we must have exercised the utmost reasonableness in the matter of prices.

Remember

We operate under the most economic conditions. We purchase for cash. Cash knocks the persimmons.

We are therefore able to offer the public extra inducements in the line of proprietary medicines, prescriptions, and all druggists' supplies.

Dows' Menthol Cream is rapidly leading the way in curing catarrh and all head affections.

Dows' Diarrhoea and Cholera Syrup is too well known to need praise. "No cure, no pay" is the basis on which it is sold.

Visitors, enquirers and purchasers equally welcome, at all times.

PREFACE.

The second volume of the LOWELL SUBURBAN DIRECTORY, like its predecessor, is a complete directory of the towns of Billerica, Chelmsford, Dracut, Tewksbury, Tyngsboro and Westford. It contains a general and business directory of each place, together with a list of the streets, town officers, churches, societies, associations, etc. A business directory of the patrons in Lowell, together with diagrams of the principal halls and theatres in Lowell and Boston are also given. A special feature of this publication is the complete list of farmers contained in the business directory of each town.

For the benefit of the advertisers, a pamphlet directory has been distributed free to the residents of each town, and, with the sale of the regular edition, it ensures a large circulation at business places and at residences. A good directory is a recognized necessity for small towns, as well as large towns and cities, not only for present reference and information, but for preserving in compact form the names and business concerns of each place, so as to furnish in future years for historic, genealogical and other purposes, a complete guide to the industries, occupations and names of former residents.

The price of the combined directory for the six towns, handsomely bound in board covers, is two dollars, and the book can be obtained by forwarding that sum to the publisher,

HENRY M. MEEK, No. 3 Orange Street, Salem, Mass.

DEAR FRIENDS,—

In connection with my Eye and Ear practice in this city, I have found it advisable to establish a private hospital for the care of my patients where operation or electrical treatment is necessary. My reasons for so doing, are:

FIRST.—Complete isolation from other diseases which cannot be obtained in a hospital devoted to general work.

SECOND.—The personal supervision which can be given.

THIRD.—The employment of nurses accustomed to the work.

FOURTH.—The location, which is in one of the highest and healthiest parts of Lowell, yet only one mile from the centre, and within two minutes of the electric.

FIFTH.—The sanitary arrangements are all new, the rooms finished in southern pine, walls painted, ceilings kalsomined, etc.
