There ain't no mountain high enough to stop the yearbook staff.

Bhaskar, Josh, and Lillian break free.

Up, up, and away!

The yearbook staff reaches new heights on the roof of CHS.

Ashmi says, "It's not easy being green."

Sarah, Kelley, and Diana defy gravity.

For Sports Editors Matt and Ashmi, the sky's the limit!

A cub emerged from his den and squinted in the morning light. His eyes adjusted to the brightness, and he saw the savannah spread to the horizon. As he hurried back into his den, he wondered what lay beyond his sight.

Each day, the cub grew stronger. He ran with his pride through the vast stretches of grass. Despite the searing heat, he ventured forth. His journeys often led him to a cool pond, a reward unknown to the timid creatures. The lion scouted land beyond his grassland home. He came to a mountain and learned how to climb. He came to a sea and learned how to swim. He came to a cliff and learned how to fly.

The lion, of course, is from the Class of 1995. Our story has been one of conquering obstacles and fulfilling our potential. Our endeavors together have created many cherished memories. Enjoy The 1995 Lion, the record of our journey.

Sincerely,
The Editors of The 1995 Lion

Under the Sea

"Just look at the world around you, right here
on the ocean floor.
Such wonderful things around you, what more is you looking for?"

Under the sea
Under the sea
Darlin' it's better
down where it's wetter, take it from me!"

The cotillion committee planned a great dance just for YOU!

Don't you guys belong on the dance floor?

John Holliday doesn't even need a date to have a good time!

Sachin, maybe you should take a breather.

Greetings from two beautiful ladies under the sea.

Jenna and her date dance the night away.

There were smiles all around at the cotillion.

Jen Waber demonstrates a new dance move for her friends.

Hey Maggie, Get down !

Pete, my how you've grown!

Matt and Sarah, What's so funny?

The enchantment of the sea mesmerizes Melinda and her date.

Kevin O'Connor and Derek Warshafsky tear up the dance floor.

Mike Costa sings, "You are my sunshine," to Emily Kluga.

Beyond the Graveyard

Saturday October 29, 1994 - The wind brushed against the bleak walls of Chelmsford High School as dead maidens arose from the grave and crept along the halls. The Jackson Five, however, added some pizzazz to an otherwise "lifeless" party. A giant M&M and a colorful clown kept the other fiends in line.

The class of 1995 took a trip beyond reality as we danced to the eerie click of the "Addams' Family" and the hypnotic drone of the "Monster Mash." Too soon, though, the clock struck eleven and the strange beings returned to wherever they came from.

It was Colonel Mustard in the Conservatory with the candlestick.

The Crow lives.

And we thought our Class President was a nice guy.

I hope that dress isn't dry clean only.

These beautiful maidens are ready for a grand masquerade.

What can we say? We're just a bunch of revolutionary fellows.

Teen Wolf meets disco.

Dean Thomas says, "If you can't grow hair, grow hands."

You really should get blood tests before you do that.

The clown from IT already has his first victim.

I'll get you my pretty!

And you want US to stop the insanity?!

Dave, Mr. Levine knows who you are, and he's coming to get you.

Don't hate me because I'm beautiful.

This group of colorblind friends almost blinds the photographer.

Please excuse the interruption...

How could our memories of Chelmsford High School be complete without reminiscing on Mr. Levine's invaluable advice? Accordingly, we would like to present

Mr. Levine's Top Ten Words of Wisdom

1. Kids First.
2. No Kissy-Face or Huggy-Bear.
3. Don't flash your headlights at anyone; they might kill you.
4. Whatever class you are in, I expect you to be a responsible role model.
5. Look out for the re-revised bell schedule.
6. You should be reading during reading period.
7. The library has always been for "silent study."
8. May heaven help you if I catch you in the parking lot during the school day.
9. Watch out for killer rabid raccoons.
10. Don't mess with me; I know who you are, and I'm coming to get you.

SENIORS

*Dedicated to.....
Mr. Conrad and Mr.
Taranto*

"They are basically the best thing that ever happened to C.H.S."

- Patricia Metz

"They gave more to our class than we could ever give back. Whenever I saw them, they were always visibly having a good time, and occasionally joking around."

-Kevin Offt

"These men have given and accomplished so much that it would be an honor for us to have their names in our yearbook."

-Maral Jeknavorian

"They did all they could so we could make it through here."

- Scott Brown

There are no words that we can put into a sentence to describe how wonderful these two men are. John Conrad and Angelo Taranto, our two former deans, gave 110% to the Class of 1995. When we were freshman, they welcomed us and eased our transition to C.H.S. Through our struggles, they gave us wisdom, wit, and support. By encouraging us every step of the way, they contributed to our success. Their warmth and support have left an everlasting impression on us. Their jolly smiles and boundless devotion will forever inspire kindness from those they knew. Now as seniors, we give them this honor. We trust that this small token will in some way repay them for their caring. With great gratitude and admiration, we recognize Mr. Conrad's and Mr. Taranto's contributions, not only to our class, but to all of Chelmsford High School.

John Conrad
Whittier House Dean

Angelo Taranto
Hawthorne House Dean

"They made this school what it is today. They had a unique relationship with the students."
- Jen Waber

"They helped us with our problems, big or small, and they gave us their all because they loved their jobs."

- Theresa Daley

"These two deans have put a lot of extra hard work into their jobs. They go to all the sporting events and they try to compromise problems in school. They're just two great teachers who are going to be missed greatly around this school."

- Terrence McCrensky

"I believe that even though they are not presently working here at C.H.S., their memory is still here and everyone who knew them misses them because they made a difference in this school."

- Danielle Kulakowski

"They have both worked so very hard for us for the past three years and the beginning of this last year. Everyone loves them and they deserve it."

- Christine Hogan

"Mr. Conrad and Mr. Taranto have worked hard at Chelmsford High School for many years. Both men dedicated their lives to students and faculty even when times were bad. To show them our thanks, love, and appreciation, I would like to dedicate this yearbook to them for a life of dedication. We can dedicate the year 1994-1995 to them!

- Erica Constantineau

Class Representatives

The class reps smile for the camera as Scott McKay and Paul Branco stop Mike Hirsch from jumping off the roof.

Thanks to the officers, the class of '95 is in the swing of things.

Jay, Matt, and Jasmine play on a slide.

It was just four short years ago that the members of the class of 1995, insecure and unaware of what experiences lay ahead, graduated from the maternal halls of McCarthy Middle School. Four short years since those same members, ready or not, were jolted into a situation that required an unbelievable amount of mental strength and determination. Four short years ago the freshman class of 1995 stepped timidly and cautiously into the halls of Chelmsford High School for the first time. We stepped not just into the halls of a high school, but rather we stepped into an exhilarating journey that would test our character and try our emotions. We began the journey as uncertain children, and now we complete it as mature adults.

Through the years the class of 1995 has grown in many ways, not just as a high school class, but as one extended family. We have shared experiences and educated one another. We have watched each other develop and mature into very different and independent individuals. It is that diversity and independence that gives our class its uniqueness. The bonds, friends, and memories that we have formed, as well as the overwhelming feeling of unity will be with us forever. These memories and bonds are essential for a full high school experience, for they can neither be learned nor taught. They have shaped our characters and will continue to guide us in the way we live our lives.

It has been my pleasure and honor to serve and represent this class as its president. I thank everyone for their support, especially the class representatives whose spirited dedication, hard work, and efforts made our class the success that it is. The immense devotion of officers Matt Metivier (vice president), Matt Nangle (treasurer), and Erin Littlefield (secretary), go above and beyond the call of duty. I would like to give a special thanks to our amazing advisors, Mrs. Cheryl Mamalis and Mrs. Beverly McCoy for their extremely valuable help, patience, and sagacity. Without the support of all the reps, fellow officers, and advisors, it would be impossible for me to do my job.

To the class of 1995, I would like to express my utmost gratitude and appreciation for entrusting me with the vigorous yet gratifying job of being your class president. It is with great sadness and reluctance that I bid farewell to you, the class of 1995. It has been an incredible journey. May all your memories stay with you, and may your lives be filled with much happiness and success.

The Morp

Saturday, September 24 - What a better way to kick off the new year than with the Morp! We danced the night away as student DJ David Rondina played an exciting collection of hits from the 70's, 80's and 90's. The Morp was a night that allowed us to break free from the school environment and to let loose with old friends. With all the enthusiasm that the student body showed, the Morp was a great success.

A sea of happy faces flooded the Morp.

"Swing your partner 'round and 'round;
Lift your partner off the ground!"

Erin and Greg laugh the night away.

Ray Burns asks, "Hey, does anybody want to dance?"

Matt Metivier leads the class in a group rendition of "YMCA."

Tricia Metz and Kate Benoit get a little closer at the Morp.

SPIRIT WEEK

The week before the Thanksgiving holiday is traditionally known as Spirit Week in Chelmsford High School. There is a friendly competition amongst the four classes to see which class has the most school spirit. Contests include the spirit wall, theme day, can drive, penny wars, and pep rally competitions. Spirit Week is also celebrated by the Homecoming Dance which featured music performed by the band Lift, and by the powder puff football game which pitted the senior girls against the junior girls. This year's Spirit Week succeeded in rallying school spirit and enthusiasm in support of the football team in their annual game against archrival Billerica.

Get down girls!

Everybody smile!

Jake Briggs entertains the crowd with an exciting rendition of "Today."

"Hey, would you like some ice with that coke?"

Go Lions!

Lauren O'Neil begins work on the senior wall.

Jasmine helps to organize the senior wall.

Anne Perriello leads the senior charge into the gym.

The Crow haunts the senior powder puff team.

The seniors celebrate after a crushing victory.

Miracle on 200 Richardson Road

On Saturday December 10, there was a "Miracle on 200 Richardson Road." Once again this year's winter dance was a huge success with over 750 students in attendance. Both cafeterias were packed with merry frolickers who escaped the slushy weather outside to dance the night away. The winter dance also marked the annual crowning of the King and Queen. This year's winners were Lauri Nowlan and Paul Branco. They were attended by the other members of their court, Theresa Daly and Mark Jenkins, Jaime Russo and Scott McKay, and Greg Mara and Erin Littlefield.

Marc and Lisa are out for a night of dinner and dancing.

Hey, Ryan, what's up?

Shawn and Zarah make such a cute couple

Brian, who did you escort to the dance, Stephanie or Jason?

"Dancing queen...see that girl only seventeen."

The King and Queen of the Winter Ball:
Lauri Nowlan and Paul Branco.

Tim and Stephanie waltzed the night away.

A picture perfect pair

Matt and his date share a slow song.

Jay and Andrea dance the night away.

Aaah! Why are we wearing the same dress???

Kate and Brian enjoy the magic of the holiday season.

Tim and Abby groove to the music.

"Hey, keep your hands to yourself!"

Another happy couple takes the dance floor.

Jaimie Russo

"The more faithfully you listen to the voice within, the better you will hear what's sounding outside."
Best of luck to all. Love you Mom, Dad, Loren, Scott-Thanks.

MATH

Mathematics is an area of study where interaction between teacher and student is essential. Without the patience and understanding that these teachers give to their students, the growth of higher mathematical knowledge cannot occur. Mathematics is a very important part of our curriculum, and our math teachers have helped many students reach their full potential in this area.

ENGLISH

English is a part of everyday life, and we are fortunate to have a super group of teachers who have dedicated their time to improving our knowledge in this area. As teachers, they open up a whole new world to their students through literature, and help students better express themselves in writing. Their job is a difficult one, and they deserve much recognition for the hard work they do.

ARTS

The arts bring out the creativity and talent of many Chelmsford High School students. Our music and art teachers are mentors, as well as friends. They successfully motivate students to achieve their full potential, and give us the tools to build self-esteem and the ability to go on to bigger and better endeavors in the areas of art and music.

HEALTH & PHYSICAL EDUCATION

You want a note to be excused from gym AGAIN!?

Our Physical Education and Health teachers, along with our school nurses, have very difficult jobs. They have the pleasure, though, of getting a chance to work with every student at Chelmsford High. They have years of experience and training which they can use to educate us about our own physical well-being. They have always shown a real concern for our education in this area. They deserve much appreciation for the great job they do!

CLASS OF 1995 ADVISORS

Over the past two years, the Class of 1995 has been lucky to have Mrs. Beverly McCoy as one of our two class advisors. Mrs. McCoy became our advisor in September of 1993, and since then she has been an extraordinary asset to our class. Over the past two years, we have come to appreciate her perseverance, dedication, and intelligent sense of humor. She has spent many hours in class rep and officer meetings, and has given up many weekends and weeknights to chaperone dances and to help fund-raise. The class of 1995 owes a debt of gratitude to Mrs. McCoy for devoting so much of her time and effort to helping our class as advisor.

I'd like to thank the Academy for this honor...

Mrs. Cheryl Mamalis has been our class advisor for all four years. She showed great spirit in the first year as she took on the immense responsibility of being the advisor for the Class of 1995. She knew that being advisor was a huge commitment that would mean giving advice, coordinating dances, events, and fund-raisers, and dealing with the many problems that would arise. Since our freshman year, Mrs. Mamalis has spent almost every weekend performing some task for the class. Through her dedication, Mrs. Mamalis has earned the respect and admiration of all who work around her.

Your lab is where?

For these reasons and many more, the Class of 1995 thanks Mrs. Cheryl Mamalis and Mrs. Beverly McCoy for being our class advisors.

Gregory Mara

Thank You Mrs. McCoy and Mrs. Mamalis!

Aren't Mrs. Mamalis and Mrs. McCoy the cutest advisors?

DEAN ALLEN THOMAS

Mr. Thomas and Ms. DiVincenzo share a joke.

Mr. Thomas stops for a heart to heart with the photographer.

This fall, Mr. Thomas began the school year in his new position as dean of Hawthorne House. Many students already know him from his many years as History teacher and department head, and as a swimming coach.

While in high school, he ran track, and played football and basketball. He was elected to the "Silver M" Society, which recognized him for citizenship and leadership qualities. He was also voted "Best All Around" for his class of 1963 at Middleboro High School.

Students know that Mr. Thomas' door is always open. They trust him and feel comfortable talking to him about whatever is on their mind. He is a firm but kind leader in our school. Student comments on his influence have been positive:

"I just love him! He is funny, understanding, and smart."

-Katie Jewett

"His dedication and loyalty to the school are exemplary. A chapter of his life ended when he gave up his teaching position and head swim coach position to become dean."

-Peter Kalpas

"He honestly cares about CHS and its students. He is always there to help."

-Stephen Heron

DEAN STEPHEN MEIDELL

Mr. Meidell and the crew: Matt, Mr. Tate, Julie, and Jen.

Mr. Meidell and Mrs. Silva are buds.

Do you have a pass?

Though Mr. Meidell stepped into a new position as dean of Whittier House this fall, he was already well known by many students as an English teacher, department head, friend, and even a neighbor to some.

He has been involved in Language Arts since high school, writing for his Malden High School newspaper The Blue and Gold, and acting in his high school's production of "The Mouse That Roared".

Mr. Meidell has already done an excellent job of getting to know students and helping them with all kinds of problems. He's always around, in the halls or in his office, and he always has a smile on his face. His gentle and calming influence can be felt throughout the school. Many students have expressed their thoughts on how Dean Meidell has affected them:

"He's good! He's got deep insights and he has affected me most"

- Lisa Marchand

"He is a hard worker who cares about his job and is a very pleasant and caring person"

-Erin Littlefield

"During his first year as dean Mr. Meidell has made an extraordinary effort to get to know everyone and really tried to make a difference in this school. He has worked hard over the years as English Department Head and finally as Dean"

-Ryan Mullin

"He has done a great job in transitioning from teacher to dean and has always participated with our class"

-Michael Sime

News, etc.

Rwanda...Floods in the Southeast...O.J....1994 was an exciting year in all aspects. From entertainment to politics to foreign affairs, history changing events were taking place. Here's a refresher in case you missed the news the first time around.

Nelson Mandela was elected to govern the violent country of South Africa. The 76-year-old leader won in the country's first all-race election that ended the white minority rule and made Mandela the first black South African leader. He won the 1993 Nobel Peace Prize and has been applauded for leading his country through a peaceful revolution many had thought was impossible. Faced with criticism that he was slow to accomplish his goals, Mandela said people must be realistic. He said lack of trained workers and proper communications make rapid development impossible.

Nine Inch Nails hit the charts with The Downward Spiral, a mixed-bag of rivet-gun rhythms. As one critic said, "Within this torture chamber of The Downward Spiral is an amazing artist, maker of some of the most sophisticated machine music ever made. Trent Reznor has turned synthesizers into a symphonic swirl and given his drum machines a personality."

After 46 years as enemies, Israel and Jordan made peace and all but ended the threat of another war between the Jewish state and its Arab neighbor. With President Bill Clinton presiding at the White House Mideast Peace ceremony, Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin and King Hussein of Jordan met in public for the first time, shook hands, and signed "The Washington Declaration" that announced: "the long conflict between the two states is now coming to an end. In this spirit the state of belligerency between Israel and Jordan has been terminated."

It was called the trial of the century - the trial of O.J. Simpson. He was accused of brutally murdering his ex-wife, Nicole Brown Simpson, and her friend, Ronald Goldman. There was so much interest in the case that even the preliminary hearing was televised nationally. Simpson put together an expensive "dream team" of lawyers, lead by Robert Shapiro. On the prosecution side, prosecutor Marcia Clark represented the district attorney's office.

Haiti, a country of poverty and discontent, elected President Jean-Bertrand Aristide in late 1990. Less than a year later, he was arrested and expelled by the military. A negotiating team led by former President Jimmy Carter struck a deal with coup leader Lt. Gen. Raoul Cedras that allowed U.S. troops to occupy the island and Mr. Aristide to return to power.

At 31, Jerry Rice broke the National Football League record for career touchdowns. And then, the ten-year receiver for the San Francisco 49ers became the league's all-time touchdown scoring leader. His two touchdown receptions and 23-yard scoring run in the season-opening 44-14 victory against the L.A. Raiders increased his career total to 127. That was one more than Jim Brown had when he retired in 1965 after 9 seasons with the Cleveland Browns.

President Bill Clinton entered 1995 with hope for a better year. Although he won a significant battle with the Crime Bill, he lost the Health Care proposal that he battled for all year. The 48-year-old Democrat, who struggled to win an uphill battle against incumbent President George Bush in 1992, said that the passage of the Health Care Bill was his most important mission as president.

National health care legislation, President Clinton's grandest legislative goal of the year, failed to come to a vote in Congress in the final months of the year. The legislation would have guaranteed medical care to all Americans. It staggered under the weight of attacks from Republicans and insurance interests for many months. President Clinton and other Democrats immediately said that they would try to bring health care legislation back to life next year.

President Clinton signed a $30 billion Crime Bill. The huge law bans the manufacture, sale, and possession of 19 specific types of assault-style weapons. It also allows the death penalty for 60 additional federal crimes, including drive-by-shooting, and carjacking deaths. As for the money, the law authorizes billions of dollars over six years to build prisons and hire more police. Attorney General Janet Reno said that twenty-thousand new police officers should be on the streets by 1996.

Newt Gingrich, a conservative congressman from Georgia, was elected as the Speaker of the House of Representatives. As the leader of the new Republican-controlled Congress, Gingrich set forth his "Contract With America" that included welfare reform, middle-class tax cuts, Congressional term limits, and legal reform.

More than a million refugees were forced to flee to Zaire and other neighboring countries after the victory of the mainly Tutsi Rwanda Patriotic Front, although a peace accord was signed in 1993 between the Tutsis and the Hutus. Disease killed thousands in refugee camps, but according to the UN, massacres left more than 500,000 dead.

Although a referendum for independence from Yugoslavia was passed in 1992, war and desperation continued to be a part of life in Bosnia-Herzegovina. Ethnic Serbs' opposition sparked fierce fighting. Serbs massacred thousands of Bosnians, mostly civilians. A year later, in 1993 Bosnian Serbs, Muslims, and Croats agreed in principle to partition the country into autonomous ethnic regions. But as 1994 drew to a close, the fighting continued, and negotiations on a peace plan made slow progress.

The latest album by the Chicago-based group called Smashing Pumpkins was panned by the critics. But that didn't stop Siamese Dream from climbing to the Top 10 and spending months on the top-selling charts.

Forest fires swept across more than a dozen western states. An eight-year drought brought the United States its worst forest fires since the 1920s, blackening some 3 million acres. Fourteen firefighters were killed in a blaze in Colorado.

Heather Whitestone is deaf and she achieved her goal of becoming Miss America. The 21-year-old native of Birmingham, Ala., who became deaf at the age of 18 months after a reaction to a diphtheria shot, has 5 percent hearing in her left ear. The junior at Jacksonville State University reads lips, uses a hearing aid and knows sign language. But her disability didn't impair her ballet performance at the Miss America Pageant--even though she could only feel the vibration.

Tropical Storm Albert hit the South, and the Georgia floods made history. The storm unloaded more than 20 inches of rain and caused flooding that killed 31 people. Forty-nine counties were declared federal disaster areas and about 46,000 people were driven from their homes. In Albany, 30,000 people were evacuated and 9,200 houses and apartments were damaged or destroyed.

The 1994 World Cup soccer competition was played in the United States. The U.S. team made it to the second round for the first time in 30 years, beating favored team Colombia 2-1. Brazil advanced to the finals and in the final game, it was Brazil vs. Italy. An estimated 2 billion people worldwide watched Brazil battle Italy to a 0-0 tie for 120 minutes at the final game played in the Rose Bowl Stadium. Brazil eventually won 3-2 in a shootout.

Russian leader Boris Yeltsin visited Washington, D.C. in the fall of 1994 to meet with President Clinton. Yeltsin's government has become more centrist in an effort to survive the difficulties of economic reform and is more acceptable to the majority of Russians. But the 63-year-old Russian president is not without his detractors. Opposition groups ranging from ultranationalists to Communist hope to force Yeltsin, whose term ends in July 1996, to hold early presidential elections. "There will always be political struggle in Russia," says one observer.

The baseball season ended early in 1994. The players went on strike in August and a month later the owners voted to cancel the remainder of the regular season, including the play-offs and the World Series. It was the eighth strike in 23 seasons. The dispute centered on the owners' demand to create cost controls through a salary cap. The players rejected these demands and went on strike. It was the first time since 1904 that the World Series, which had survived world wars and earthquakes since its inception in 1903, was not played. President Clinton showed great interest in the dispute and attempted to assist them in reconciliation, but this attempt at negotiation also failed.

The torch was passed in the summer of 1994. After hearing about the legendary rock festival from their parents for years, a new generation seized the opportunity to create their own Woodstock. And Woodstock '94 was born. Several hundred thousand people arrived at Saugerties, N.Y. for Woodstock '94. From folk music to heavy metal, the weekend concert was filled with music almost 24-hours a day.

Andre Agassi was the people's choice at the U.S. Open Tennis Championship in New York. It was an easy win against Michael Stich of Germany. The 24-year-old Agassi became the first unseeded player to win the crown since Fred Stolle in 1966 and only the third in the 144-year history of the tournament. It was Agassi's first U.S. Open title.

Rhine Valley Concert Tour

The Chelmsford High School Symphony Orchestra and Concert Band explored new lands on the 1994 Rhine Valley Concert Tour. These groups flew overseas to visit and to perform in Germany, Austria, Switzerland, and France. The trip was an extraordinary experience, both culturally and musically. The students visited the charming city of Lucerne, where they saw a medieval fortress, and the city of Freiburg, where they climbed a magnificent gothic cathedral. The scenery included the majestic Alps and the placid Rhine River. The students also has the opportunity to meet many European students and to tour a Swiss school. Another attraction, of course, was the food. Whether it was Black Forest cake, French crepes, or Swiss chocolates, good food abounded.

Performing in Europe was a pleasure for the students, who experienced Europe's musical history and recieved a warm welcome. The Orchestra and the Band look forward to more international tours.

"When Mr. Hanson asked me about taking the Band and the Orchestra to Europe for ten days, my first reaction was, "Are you crazy?" After he assured me that previous experiences had passed without incident, I began to seriously consider the adventure. I'm very glad I did. The trip with sixty-five students was a tremendous success - musically, culturally, and aesthetically.

Mr. Hanson, myself, the chaperones, and the members of the audiences were very pleased with the level of sophistication and precision the Chelmsford High musicians have attained. Trips like this have many rewards. I sincerely hope that students from Chelmsford may be able to participate in them for years to come."

Mr. Marc Keroack

"The 1994 European Concert Tour will remain a cherished memory for decades. Members of the Chelmsford High School Band and Orchestra represented their school, family, and country with grace, respect, and dignity.

Our concerts were performed with pride and excellent musicianship. As I viewed the exchange of conversations, smiles, and addresses with our new European friends, I felt our 'Concert Tour' was a success. I hope you keep this trip in your memory forever. Thank you for sharing this wonderful time!"

Theatre Guild

Wow Jen. you've made yourself up to be Andrea!

"I hope this works!"

Jason reviews his lines.

Ah, the life of the director.

Josh could be the next John Travolta.

The Theatre Guild Presents ...

You know the story... cute little boy and girl meet wicked witch in an edible house in the woods; witch locks up boy, girl kicks witch into oven.

It's got it all: abusive step-parents, cruel and unusual parents, and other prevalent issues of society. And this year's CHS Theater Guild production of "Hansel and Gretel" had even more: a playboy bunny, and Alec Baldwin-esque "I am a handsome actor" fox creature that was always there to save the day, and a witch with a major attitude and a great sense of rhythm... not to mention killer stockings. Stereotypes were broken. Little Gretel was still blond and cute but possessed an earnest passion for the environment and a keen awareness of politics. The witch's sidekick was an overworked, under-appreciated, repressed male monster. With excellent acting, an incredible student-written score, and a script packed with humor, the CHS Theater Guild brought out the standard "Hansel and Gretel" in a new light (thanks to the technical crew). The numerous innovative plot twists and quotes extracted from Star Wars and the Wizard of Oz added to the modern humor and made "Hansel and Gretel" a fun-filled experience for cast, crew, and audience. -Amy Karr

"It's good to be a family again," says the Woodchopper.

Outside of School

The diverse endeavors of Chelmsford High School students include many activities outside of school. The Lion received an overwhelming response for this feature; the number of students who play sports, study the fine arts, and have jobs after school is amazing. The students' responses demonstrated that these activities have been challenging, enjoyable, and rewarding. The examples presented here represent a few of the many wonderful pursuits of the Chelmsford High students.

Mark Jenkins loves to fish in his spare time. "Fishing is relaxing and sort of an escape from reality," he says. Often, Mark and Terrence McCrensky go night fishing, when "the air is cool, the stars are bright, and the fish are active." Theresa Daley comments that fishing is like a way of life for Mark. She writes, "This boy can fish better than I can write my name. He rides around with a rod or two in his trunk ready with bait on it so he may `throw a couple [casts]' should he pass a lake or river."

Mark Jenkins and friend.

Joey Lazarto DJ's at WJUL.

The Chelmsford Chamber Players

Joseph Lazarto is an intern at WJUL, the radio station at U Mass Lowell. WJUL is an educational and public service station that serves students, townspeople, and other adults trying to get a message across to the public. Joey says being a DJ teaches students an important aspect of communications through radio broadcasting, and provides experience speaking with a multitude of people. The station plays a variety of shows that appeal to many different listeners. Joey also plans to freelance as a DJ.

Bhaskar Srivastava, Lilia Chen, Christopher Click, and Jodie Gilfeather are the musicians in the string quartet known as the Chelmsford Chamber Players. The quartet, which was founded by its members to promote music at school and in the community, has performed at CHS, at nursing homes, and at social gatherings. Bhaskar says, "Playing in the quartet has been great. I love independently choosing and learning music. The best aspect is that the other musicians and I have grown very close, both as musicians and as friends."

Bindu performs a graceful Indian dance.

Bindu Patel has been studying Indian classical dancing for three years. Bindu says, "Indian classical dancing is an art form. Unlike ballet or jazz, Indian dance places a heavy emphasis on facial expressions and perfect posture. It incorporates specific hand and foot movements with intricate facial expressions to enhance the beauty of the dance. Most of the styles of dance tell stories, but others may be purely classical in form." Indian dancing has been a rewarding experience for Bindu. "Dancing has taught me a lot about discipline and commitment. I have also learned to appreciate the beauty of my culture as well as that of other cultures."

The ultimate frisbee gang takes a break for a photo.

A group of CHS students, including seniors Simone Beaubien, Temin Lee, Justin Safdie, Mike Phillips, Rob Luhrs, Dan Nakamoto, Evan Kelly, Beth Frantz, Eliza Eggert, Jeff Davison, and Amy Froelich, enjoy playing ultimate frisbee on Sunday afternoons, rain or shine. Temin says that the games have more contact, such as bumping and pushing, than one would expect. Also, there are more accidents than one would guess. A middle schooler, for example, ran into a pole as he attempted to catch the frisbee. In all, though, Temin says the games are enjoyable. Afterwards, the group often meets at someone's house for dinner. Having shared many of their Sundays, the frisbee players have grown closer to each other.

Prisoners of the Community protests prejudices.

Raymond Burns, Manny "Chuco" Duarte, and Nick Cote are in a rap group called Prisoners of the Community (P.O.T.C.) The group protests the prejudices of society that condemn a person for the way he or she looks or acts. Raymond has also worked with the group X-CALIBER, which has an album coming out on a Boston label.

More Outside of School ...

Kim Baker started riding horses when she was ten years old. She rode for two years before getting her horse RF Fanfare. Kim trained Fanfare mostly on her own. Fanfare, or Farmer as she is called, is trained in three seats and can drive. Kim and Farmer show throughout New England in "A" rated and 4H shows, where they compete in halter class performance. Because of Kim's interest in horses and her work with animals, she plans to take Fanfare to college with her, where she hopes to study equine veterinary medicine.

Jenny Held enjoys a NEFTY event.

Amy Karr rehearses a piece from "Joseph."

Jenny Held has been involved in the Northeast Federation of Temple Youth (NEFTY) since freshman year. NEFTY has been a rewarding experience for Jenny, who writes, "NEFTY has always been something of a second home to me. Through my experiences with the group, I have gained an unbelievably deep understanding of my religion. But the best part of the events is the people who are there - I have made so many amazing friendships with other Jewish teens, something that rarely happens in Chelmsford. There is nothing I look forward to more than an upcoming NEFTY event!"

Amy Karr has been involved in theater for seven years. She has performed in musicals and plays with such groups as Act/Youth Tunes Theater in Concord and Indian Hill Arts in Littleton. Also, she has recently had the opportunity to combine her passion for theater with her thirteen years of piano playing by accompanying musicals. Pictured here she is accompanying a rehearsal of "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat."

The band Lift

Paul Branco, Jake Briggs, and Greg Mara have been in the band Lift (formerly Orpheus) since eighth grade. They play music ranging from Pearl Jam to CSN. Lift has been influenced by many styles; the band plays not only hard rock, but also much Tommy loves Lisa!

Lisa Azzalina babysits for two families twice a week. The picture is of Lisa and Tommy, one of the children she babysits. Lisa has been babysitting for Tommy for over a year. Lisa says, "Tommy is six years old and I really enjoy taking care of him. He's adorable, but he can really be a handful. But, I like the challenge, and I like knowing that I'm there to guide him and be someone he can look up to."

Sherill Erickson blows the whistle.

Sherill Erickson has been a referee for Chelmsford Youth Basketball League since her freshman year. She referees boys and girls between fifth and eighth grades on Saturdays. During November, she attends classes and then takes a test.

performs another great concert.

Jason Van Dinter is "paid to play."

Jason Van Dinter has worked at Parker School daycare for almost three years. Jason mainly takes care of fifth and sixth grade children after school with other teachers. Jason says, "Trying to make daycare fun and busy is a difficult job because the older kids don't particularly like being at `daycare.'" The day basically consists of playing on the playground or gym, doing homework, and discussing up -to-date issues. Jason has fun responding to the question "What do you do for a living?" by answering "I get paid to play!"

acoustic music. Jake writes most of the songs and plays the guitar. Paul plays bass, and Greg plays the drums. The group professionally recorded a demo tape that came out great. Lift has volunteered its talents to the Class of 1995 at the Kerry Dance, the Homecoming Dance, and at many Lion's Dens. The members have contributed much to the class and are appreciated by their peers.

YEAR IN REVIEW

FOOTBALL-

The 1994 football season was a highly successful one for the Chelmsford High School football team. We compiled a 9-1-1 record on our way to winning a fourth straight MVC title and the Eastern Mass. Super Bowl. We really came together as a team, and there were several memorable moments along the way. Among the highlights: the opening night demolition of Dracut; Disco Jim; shutting up Lowell with a 28-0 spanking in front of 8,000 fans; the always open "backside eight"; the deafening silence after we tied Central; bonfires and poetry reading at Duey's; ruining Haverhill's homecoming; the Thanksgiving Day massacre of the Indians and Dan Curran's record-setting performance; practice at Boston College; the night in a hotel; our 29-0 Super Bowl triumph; and finally, the season-ending party at Brown's. When we take a look back at the 1994 season, it will be more than just victories and titles. We will especially remember the friendships that were formed. Everyone, players and coaches, worked together towards a common goal, and achieving that will always be special and unforgettable.

FIELD HOCKEY-

"Our Time Together" by Theresa Daley

We are the Lady Lions, and we were the team to beat
So give their team a little credit,
They've accomplished a major feat.
They did something else that no one else could
And a little something else that no one else should.
They got under our skin like no other team
They thought if they stopped us they'd step on our dream
But we played our game, and we went so far,
Forever our season will hang from a star.
So a field will no longer hold D.S.W.A.
But we're getting older, so I guess that's O.K.
We'll have some good memories with our families to share
And friends of a lifetime who'll always be there,
A team with such spunk that would not only try
But a '94 season that they wouldn't let die.
They played with their hearts and their great LION PRIDE;
They can hold their heads high, they have nothing to hide;
They played with their all during each trying game,
No team, if they tried, can ever do the same.
We brought this school joy and a lot of good fun;
We gave them a ride, on our STATE TOURNAMENT run.
We gave all we could, and that's all we can do,
The "GREAT" Lady Lions have no reason to be blue.
As we walked off the field our fans showed their spirit;
They put their hands together; the whole world could hear it.
We had two years with Coach, and four years as one,
And it's just hit us now that our time together is done.
We got so many cheers, and we shed a few tears,
But the best times we'll remember...are our Field Hockey years.

GOLF-

The 1994 Golf season was a rebuilding one for the Chelmsford High Golf Team. Under new coach Steve Tague the team's record was 3-7-5. Its most impressive match was a 6-6 tie with Westford, who went on to place second in the State.

The major contributors this year were Rick Sacchetti and Greg Gibbons. Sacchetti compiled an 8-6 record, while Gibbons went 1-8, playing in the Number 1 position. Both Sacchetti and Gibbons were selected as MVC All-Stars, and Sacchetti represented the team at the State Tournament. Mark Whittenberger and Scott Conant also helped the team with their play.

The golf team has the potential to do well next year. Dave Robinson, who was 7-3 this year, Ben Hyatt, Chris Bevington, Jeff DelPapa, Brian Carnes, Jon Steinman, and Graham Walsh, along with Gibbons, will return next year. The team would like to thank Asst. Coach Colin MacDonald as well as Apple Country Club.

Rick Sacchetti '95

GIRLS' CROSS-COUNTRY- by Liz Cook + Maral Jeknavorian

The season of Cross-Country in '94,
Brought us 5 great wins and losses of 4.
Even though our team nearly doubled in size,
Our leaders Jen Gavin and Lib Long always caused our spirits to rise.

After rigorous training we were lean and mean,
Led by our shining star Elizabeth Keane.
While Erica Robertson kept us laughing,
Mr. Lang stayed focused and kept us from slacking.
A more dedicated runner than Jackie Geoffroy couldn't be found.

Meghan Coughlin triumphed on the rebound.
Sarah Wilkinson made us proud with her ninth place Northern Area finish,

Aidyl Mayol and Jen Trembly's talent surely won't diminish.
Joy Allen's house was the meeting place when justice was to be served,

Just for the record, the girls won the TP wars,
And the boys got what they deserved.
Liz Kelber was the designated team flirt,
But when it came down to the end, Natalie Long really kicked up some dirt.

It seems Karen Bell and Laura Domey were always China-bound,

At the start of every grueling home course race the
"Gunman's" encouraging face could always be found.
Who's keys got stuck at Friendly's?...none other than Kate
Peterson,

Katie Sullivan was our own Jim Carrey, "All-righty-then".
At the end of our races we could hardly run another yard,
Not many worked harder than Leigh Rivard.
As the smell of a vanilla "Cookie" lingered in the air,
Not a single opponent could top our spirit in the lion's lair.
While Maral Jeknavorian proved to be unconditionally caring,
Sarah Foster was definitely daring.

Stacia Smith heated up the locker room with those girls of volleyball,

Right down to the end Jamie Fleming gave it her all.
For now there are no more Cross-Country races to be run,
And the Seniors' last season is officially done.

As for all the runners who still remain,
There is a State title for you to go out and claim.
Make sure to give all you have each and every day,
You've definitely got the potential to go all the way.

Our close team could never be torn apart,
All the friendships and memories of the good times will forever remain in our hearts.

Thanks to all the inspirational runners of the past,
And to those of the future... "good luck, RUN HAPPY, and make the good times last."

BOYS' CROSS-COUNTRY-

The Boys C-C team expects to be MVC champs every year, no questions. So when we have a season with as many losses as this one had, we are horror-stricken, enraged, brought to tears. The numbers don't tell the whole story, though. For example, we lost three meets by a combined ten points. But then again, we still lost.

This season was my worst. Aside from the memories of goals never achieved, I will always recall the lack of support from the school and community. I realize that cross-country is not the most exciting sport to watch, but when administrators do not remember that you exist, you feel slighted.

Well here's to you, Abe. You who were there for us through thick and thin, who always made us smile, this cast iron ceiling is for you.

Anonymous

GIRLS' SWIMMING AND DIVING-

"Where's Mr. Thomas?" This was the question that was asked at the beginning of the season. As tryout week went on, we realized that the demands of being Dean consumed too much time. Congratulations to Mrs. Peterson who moved up to head coach, and Mrs. Kinnett whom the team welcomed as the new assistant coach. Thank you Mr. Thomas, for everything you've done for us in the past, and for being such a great role model; you will be missed!

With a young team, we ended with a great season. We had a total of seven wins and three losses.
We ended our season with an incredible third place at the M.I.A.A. State Championship. But the season didn't only consist of swim meets. There was much team bonding such as the comradery during training and the spaghetti dinners where we all chowed. Congratulations to everyone who swam their individual bests, and special congratulations to Jenelle Bryan,
State Champ in the 500 yard Freestyle, and Clewis
Kinnett, State Champ in the 100 yard Freestyle.

Swim on Jerry, and let the power of the duck continue!

Kim Keller '95

GIRLS' VOLLEYBALL-

The motto "We play our opponents, not their reputations." was the driving force behind the extremely successful season of the girls' volleyball team. Not only did they defend their title of MVC champions, but they also captured the Division I North Sectional Title. After beating two of the toughest teams in the state, during state tournament play, the Lady Lions proved themselves to be among the best 4 teams in the entire state. The players were not surprised with their many accomplishments, however, for they knew that hard work, dedication, and a positive attitude were the key factors in shaping a great season. With a record of 19-5, the girls had much to be proud of. During the season, head coach Dana DeFilippo received her 200th career win and later became the Lowell Sun Coach of the Year. Assistant coach Karen Robillard, also, did a fine job by both conditioning the girls and improving their skills. Team manager Danielle Luce was extremely dedicated in helping out from tossing balls at practice to keeping the stats at games. Leading the team were seniors Co-Captains Jessi Ferner and Jenn Mumby, Sherrill Erickson, and Kerri Duffin. The juniors were led by Lora McCormack, Sandra Forcier, Stephanie Lis, Heather Swimm, and Sarah Phelan. The talent potential of sophomores Susan Mumby, Heather Turay, and Tricia Woolard was displayed in every game. Sherrill Erickson was named the Most Improved Player. Jessi Ferner, Sherrill Erickson, and Kerri Duffin were all named to the MVC All-Star Team while Heather Turay was selected to the All Conference team. Jenn Mumby was chosen MVC player of the year. The team wishes best of luck to next year's talented squad. Go Lady Lions!

Jenn Mumby '95

GIRLS' SOCCER-

This season was one of improvement for the girls soccer team. With strong competition from all over the Merrimack Valley, they struggled at first but greatly improved and enjoyed some well deserved victories.

Captains Anne Gorham, Amy Richardson, and Jeanne Lurvey led their team both on and off the field and kept their teammates up whenever possible. The team demonstrated team dedication and unity so much so that every player this season was a key contributor. The Most Valuable Player this season was senior Carrie Rollins and the Most Improved Player was senior Zarah Schmid. Senior Carrie Rollins was an incredible asset to the team, providing hat tricks at a number of critical games. This season's record was 7-7-3. Coach Janet Rigazio was a great motivator when it came to team pressure moments. Thanks Coach!

This year was full of memories and nostalgia. We will always cherish the great times we had together. As we go our separate ways, we will never forget Chelmsford High School Soccer.

Jeanne Lurvey '95

BOYS SOCCER-

For the first time in three years, the Boys Varsity soccer team won the MVC and qualified for the state tournament. The season was a story of incredible achievement as the Lions, who were not considered a heavy preseason favorite, compiled an undefeated 13-0-5 record.

The beginning of the season was skeptical with the debut of first year coach Michael Morgan. With emotional wins over Coach Morgan's alma mater Tewksbury and league rival Andover, the Lions' season was looking promising. At the halfway point of the season, the Lions' record was a league leading 6-0-3. The Chelmsford High boys' soccer team was now a feared MVC opponent and the team knew that the second time around would be considerably tougher. However, the team responded to the challenge, finishing the season 13-0-5 and outscoring opponents 42-9. The season ended on a heart breaking sudden death overtime shootout loss to Andover in the second round of the state tournament.

Some team members were recognized for their individual achievements, like MVC player of the year Matt Caffelle (0.5 goals/game), All Conference selections Kevin Beaudoin and Matt Brown (20 goals), and All Star selections Mike Anderson and Stevie Wong. Coach Michael Morgan was also recognized, being unanimously selected as MVC Large School Coach of the year.

Stevie Wong '95

BOYS' INDOOR TRACK-

The '94-'95 Boys Indoor Track team started out with some doubts for a record similar to last year's record of 7-1. The team graduated 21 seniors last year to leave us with 8 seniors this year. We ended up with a record of 5-3 with losses to Lowell, Andover, and Central Catholic. Fortunately, the team pulled together and produced a winning record and qualified many for States.

Most of the events were covered with adequate depth, and scoring was a given in at least every event. Led by senior co-captains Steven Mayol and Jon Mast, the team spread itself over the weak spots. The distance events were dominated by Steve Mayol, Matt Metivier, Steve Boyd, Keith Carter, Steve Wright, and Sachin Shah. Juniors Bill Maffeo and Scott Johnson held up the 600, and Jon Mast and Pat Harrington supported the 300. The shot-put was covered by Casey Finnegan, Mike Langtange, and Jeff Heroux, and Jon Mast went undefeated in the High Jump with Nate Linstad and Mike Losinno close behind. Losinno also did quite well in the hurdles for an almost perfect season, and ABE forgot to show up this year.

Hopefully, next year, with the help of Coach Bill Christman, the team can produce a record just as good or better with the upcoming talents. Maybe a 4x400 relay team will suddenly appear and demolish Central Catholic, or the team mascot will scare them away. Whatever happens next year, GOOD LUCK!

Jon Mast '95

GIRLS' INDOOR TRACK-

Very few teams have enjoyed as much success as our Girls' Indoor Track team. We went undefeated in the dual meet season, winning the title of MVC Champions three out of four years. However, our 8-0-0 record this season did not come without hard work and dedication from each runner. We persevered through tough practices in cold weather in order to finish above the rest in competition. This commitment paid off when it came to facing our biggest league competitors, Andover, Masconomet, and Haverhill. However, we rose to these occasions, and each time were able to outclass our rivals.

Throughout the season, it became apparent that we could count on seniors Carrie Rollins, Ellen McCabe, Marny White, Kerry Ducharme, and Jaimie Russo to always give their best performances. The team has earned a record of 30-1-0 over the past four years, going far beyond anyone's expectations. But with this season's talented newcomers, the team's future looks even more promising.

Jaimie Russo '95

BOYS' SWIMMING-

The Boys' Swimming and Diving team finished its season out strong under first year Coach Don Benson, and his new assistant Damon Thomas. Despite early season losses to Acton-Boxboro, St. John's, and Andover, the team finished off reasonably well. They finished 6-3, giving them a tie with Andover atop the MVC, but demolished the Andover team at the championship meets. At the MVC and North Sectional meets hard work paid off for Brian Petro-Roy, Brian Pemberton, Pete Kalpas, and Brian Bates, as all four achieved lifetime best swims. Placing well all season were seniors Glenn Thoren, Steve Heron, and Dave Rines, and juniors Jon Quimby, Dave Crow, Dave Howe, and Scott Campbell.

Dave Rines '95

WRESTLING-

We knew at the beginning of the season that we were not the traditional Chelmsford Wrestling Team, and some times wondered how we measured up against the famous '85 team. With a young lineup we got progressively better throughout the season and finished our dual meet season with a win against Lowell, when it really counted. We proved to be a strong tournament team with the Big 4, (I mean Big 5), always finishing strong. Congratulations to all those who placed at States, and good luck to next year's team.

Brad Gould '95

GYMNASTICS-

This year's season may not have been the greatest for the CHS Gymnastics team, and maybe it wasn't the year when everyone hit all their routines, but I think that the '94-'95 season was a season of growth for the team as a whole. We had some hard times and some tough losses, but we also had great spirit and real triumphs over the Dracut and North Andover teams, not to mention a 116 high score for the year. From the potential the team evinced this year, I foresee CHS having a strong team next year and a real sense of team spirit.

Naturally, I will mention freshman Shannon Berhle's great first year: Shannon has had a lot of experience and she qualified for all four events at the MVC's this year, although she only competed in three due to a fractured hand. She did, however, place well and will undoubtedly do better next year. I'd also like to point out, however, our supporting team members, especially graduating seniors Heather England and Jocelyn Lindgren. Heather's excellent vaulting scores (which were despite a serious knee injury), and Jocelyn Lindgren's drastic improvement on bars were impressive and their spirit as tri-captains was phenomenal. Both junior all-around competitor Robin Johnson and sophomore Kristin Gould consistently contributed high scores and topped off their seasons with impressive routines at MVC's. Freshman Jessica Loyer also competed well this year, and did a wonderful job on bars at the MVC meet. Sophomores Anna Isaak-Ross and Rachel Ferner will both be definite forces on bars next year, and show great potential on vault. Sophomore Megan Nichols' floor routine will likely be scoring high next year as well. Jen Murray was also a consistent contributor on beam and she made some great improvements.

I think that with the improvements that everyone made this year, plus the support of incoming freshmen, the Chelmsford team will put some real pressure on the bigger teams in the league in '95-'96, and I know I speak for the whole team when I thank our coaches Lisa Fairburn and Jill Landry for their huge contributions. I'd also like to thank the gymnasts; personally I'd feel a little out of place sitting on the sidelines next year, but I can hardly wait to come back and cheer everyone on.

Simone Beaubien '95

HOCKEY-

This year's hockey team came into the season with high expectations. With fourteen players returning, including eleven seniors, the team was looking to challenge for the MVC title.

The team started 2-1 and then went on an eight-game winning streak that included a huge 5-4 win over Tewksbury. The streak ended with a 3-0 loss to Billerica. The team played well after that and eventually won a share of the league title with a 6-4 win over Billerica in the rematch. Rich DeCaprio, Scott Richard, and Shawn Roubian came up big in that game, with DeCaprio scoring four goals.

The team was led all year by the Elite Three- Rick Sacchetti, Terrence McCrensky, and Steve DeMoulied. Mark Jenkins, Eric Ryan, Keith Aucoin, Brad Robeck, Andy Galpin, and Brian Marcaurelle also had great seasons. Aaron Robinson played very well in the net, and much of that had to do with the defense.

Rick Sacchetti '95

GIRLS' BASKETBALL-

The '95 Lady Lions Basketball team had a very successful season. Although they had a rough start with three straight losses, they practiced hard, persevered and went on a 10-2 run, only losing to the MVC powerhouse Methuen by four points and Haverhill. The Lady Lions have proved themselves to be a force to be reckoned with in the MVC. They finished the season with a record of 11-9 and a qualification to the State Tournament.

The team was led by co-captains Tricia Metz and Emily Kluga. These seniors were joined by classmates Jessi Ferner and Sherrill Erickson; juniors Sandy Forcier, Lora McCormack, and Nikki Hubbard; and freshmen Colleen Mullen, Tiffany Trahan, Christina Chamberas, and Dyanna Delpapa.

The Lady Lions owe much of their success to their second year coach Carol Mastercouris. For the first time in four years the seniors have had the same coach. This fact just proves that consistency is the key to a successful team. Good luck to next year's squad.

Yearbook Memories

Lillian, why is the computer saying that there is a "fatal error"? Ashmi, can you come in to fix these layouts...? Bean, do you think you can distract the custodians for another five minutes? Does anyone know where that role of film went? Bindle, how many grams of fat do these cookies have? Bindle, how many versions of that file did you save, and how many times did you index that one list of names? Maral, are you better friends with the computer now? Who was that person standing right next to so-and-so in my candid collage? Wendy, have people gone to get ads? Josh and Lisa, could you cover four activities at the same time? Betsey, are you wearing your pajamas again? When is our deadline????

To the Class of 1995 ...

We, the lions of Chelmsford High School, have reached impressive heights in our pursuits as young adults. Now, we embark on a new adventure. The mountains we have climbed and the savannahs we have explored are valuable experiences for the challenges ahead.

The 1995 Lion, the record of our experiences, has been the endeavor of twenty dedicated editors. Co-Editor-in-Chief Claire Murphy laid out all of the senior portraits. Assistant Editor Kelley Scarmas sifted through hundreds of dance pictures, laid out many of them, and thought of wonderful captions. Assistant Editor Lillian Tsu has won my gratitude and admiration by her dedication, creativity, and sense of responsibility. I have depended on her for all aspects of the book. Sports Editors Matt Bean and Ashmi Mehrotra have done an outstanding job with their section, which included new color pages. Activities Editors Bindu "Bindle" Patel and Maral Jeknavorian have successfully completed an unprecedented, enlarged section composed of candid photos. I commend Underclass Editors Dawn Ducharme and Jenny Jefferson for the hours of work spent identifying and placing underclass portraits. Academics Editors Jessica McSheehy and Nora Meenaghan have been very dedicated, and have produced an original and interesting section. Of course, the yearbook depends on quality photographs, which Photographers Joshua Friedman and Lisa Marchand have provided in abundance. I have always been amazed by our photographers' artistic skills. Also, the Staff Artists Steve Rogan, Jen O'Brien, and Diana Yu provided beautiful artwork, often on short notice. The business staff has made the book possible by gathering the necessary funds and by running sales drives. I thank Business Editors Wendy Koff, Sarah Danzig, and Daniel Mullen. Finally, I would like to thank advisors Betsey Driscoll and Mary Donovan. The other members of the staff and I have depended on their guidance and support.

The long hours and the hard work of the yearbook editors has produced a chronicle that we will treasure. I hope you have enjoyed the 1995 Lion. And remember, there ain't no mountain high enough, there ain't no valley low enough, and there ain't no river wide enough to stop the Class of 1995.

Sincerely,

Bhaskar Srivastava
