Metamorphosis

(n.) a change of form or structure; transformation, as of a caterpillar into a butterfly.

In the days since the Class of 1997 has arrived at Chelmsford High School, we as students have gone through many changes. We have grown as individuals and as a class. We have adapted to change, coped with loss, and discovered new ways to learn from each other. We have matured, sometimes painfully, but always with grace.

High school is just one of many stages in our lives; there will be more before we are done. Here at Chelmsford High, however, we have learned to take life as it comes, greeting new opportunities with enthusiasm and hope for the future. We thank all of the teachers, parents, administration and other staff who have aided us throughout our development. And as we leave, we wish each other the best possible futures full of positive change and transformation for good.

Arabian Nights

As dusk settled on a rainy May 11, 1996, members of the class of 1997 and their dates pulled into the parking lots of Chelmsford High. They followed the lantern-lit walkway into the reception hall, where a bazaar had been set up with refreshments. Passing through the curtained doorway, they found themselves immersed in a desert scene, complete with sandy path and fountain. This led to the dance hall, where a D.J. stood eager to take requests. The gathering consisted of only a few, but that did not mean there was an absence of fun. On the contrary, by the time eleven o'clock rolled around, everyone was sad to see that the evening had come to a close. As they piled back into their cars, they took the magic of the night with them in their hearts, and would not soon forget it. They had, for the first time, come together as a class. And as they made their ways back home, they felt, for once, a sense of unity.

School had started, and with it, the stresses and worries which only a student of CHS can understand. On the night of October 12, 1996, the students of CHS breathed a collective sigh of relief and forgot school, if only for a few hours. There was a feeling of joy and fun in the air which, though hazed the months between, we still cannot forget.

October the 26th was a chill and uncommonly calm night. That soon changed as monsters, fairies, and (worst of all) Disney characters descended from the four corners of Chelmsford to cavort in unholy ritual. This was a night of true metamorphosis, when the Class of 1997 transformed into all manner of bizzare and disturbing creatures.

To The Class of 1997:

When I was elected as class president, I felt many emotions. I felt extremely proud to have been chosen to represent such a fine class. I was excited about working with my fellow officers and representatives. Now that our days at Chelmsford High School are over, I feel sad that each of us will be going our separate ways. In writing this letter, I was unsure of exactly what I wanted to say to the class.

Let me begin by thanking our class advisors, Mr. George Pollard and Ms. Joyce Bickel. The help and wisdom of these two dedicated people have made everything that we as a class have accomplished possible. I would also like to thank my fellow class officers, Vice-President Louis DiStasi, Secretary Carolyn Bleck, and Treasurer Jennifer Hardy for their dedication and hard work. Finally I would like to thank the class representatives, a group of people whose spirit and devotion have made all of our class events successful. The hard work and support of all these people have brought us four memorable years at Chelmsford High School.

Together, as a class, we have experienced many things. From our first pep rally, to our successful magazine drive, we have grown tremendously. We entered the halls of Chelmsford High School timid and unsure, and now we leave confident and mature. We learned many things during our high school days. We learned from text books and teachers, but the most important lessons we have learned from each other. Whether on the athletic field, or the stage, we have come together as a class, something I am very proud of. This togetherness has made my high school experience a memorable one; I hope yours has been too. Despite the fact that our high school journey has ended, I hope that you will always remember the good times and good friends you had at Chelmsford High School. I wish you success in all you do.

With Sincere Thanks,

David Anderson

Class Reps

"We have come a long way since we first walked through the doors of CHS 4 years ago. Our class has grown up tremendously. None of us will forget our first pep rally when the Class of 1997 tore down our spirit wall. After our freshman year, our class progressed toward more mature human beings..."

-Carolyn Bleck

Our class reps have been our leaders in the journey toward class unity. They have awakened our spirit, expanded our goals, and helped us to come together over the past four years. The Class of 1997 owes them many thanks for the hard work they have put in to make our class activities accessible and enjoyable times for all.

Amid the tumultuous changes which have occurred these past thirty odd years, there has remained one constant source of encouragement, compassion, and support: a teacher, a colleague, and, most of all, a true friend Edward Carpenter. This quiet, unassuming man has been a bedrock of support for both faculty and students. He gives without expectation of reward, be it for his countless hours in the classroom, his thoughtful gifts, or letters of encouragement, support, and sympathy. Anyone who has ever been fortunate enough to have received one of his eloquent and thoughtfully written letters, cards, or thank you notes understands the thorough sincerity of this man.

First and foremost, Mr. Carpenter is a teacher. He arrives at school at 5:45 in the morning, before most students are even awake. Before each class period, Mr. Carpenter, filled with anticipation, can be seen outside his classroom door waiting for his students to enter. Inside the classroom, he infuses his lessons with a vivacity which is not lost on his students. He makes the basic interesting and the complex beautiful; he will never leave a lecture unless everyone understands. He treats his students with honest respect and they gladly reciprocate. His is a classroom of equals and a true atmosphere for learning.

However, even after the lights are shut off at the end of the day, Mr. Carpenter continues in his dedication to his students. He spends countless hours pouring over his students' compositions, always making the insightful and warm comments which so mark his style of teaching.

For all of his admirable qualities, Mr. Carpenter also possesses a great sense of humor. Be it joking around in the book closet with Mr. Hazzard or keeping the mystery in "The Legend of the Black Belt", he looks at life seriously, but not without a smile. Not one of his students could ever forget the melodic announcement of the "Peak of the Week" to make Wednesdays seem just a little more special, or the closing of the week with "The End of the Snail's Trail." These comical proclamations never fail to amuse his students; in fact, should a week go by without them, it is noticed and missed, and Mr. Carpenter is reprimanded for his omission.

These sayings attest to the peculiar facets of Mr. Carpenter. He is a study in contrasts and incongruities. He is a student of fine literature, but a passionate fan of war novels. He is quiet and unassuming, but loves autoracing and hockey. And, though he is incredibly intelligent, he acts selflessly and with unmatched humility. Mr. Carpenter is always the first to notice another's problems and the first to volunteer to help but never draws attention to his deeds-- he seeks no limelight.

Those who have come in contact with Mr. Carpenter cannot have helped but be affected by the caring touch of this man. By his small and simple acts of kindness and generosity he has achieved greatness in our eyes. In a time when the world seems most fluid, he is a touchstone of sanity, a pillar of support, and a foundation of strength.

Mr. Carpenter has dedicated himself to us, so we students are honored to dedicate this yearbook to him. He is a gentleman in the truest sense of the word.

"...the world's nicest man..."

-Katie Morrison '97

"...He is the first one to ever motivate me. He is also (which may be more important) the nicest person I've ever had the pleasure to meet."

-Andy Locapo '97

"When I was running for class president, he wrote me a note of luck, and when I lost he wrote me another note for even trying. It's teachers like him that give me inspiration."

-Rachel O'Reilly '97

"He has done so much for his students that it is time to do the same for him."

In Memory of

Melody Michopoulos

This past winter, though the cold was not quite as frigid, another kind of chill entered the hallways of CHS. We lost one of the most vibrant beings ever to set foot into our humble building. We lost Melody Michopoulos. A teacher here for over twenty years, she was a professor of French, as well as being one of the advisors to the French Honor Society. But even if you did not take that language, her charisma and charm could not be missed. For her love and dedication to this school, in both building and people, was pervasive, even after her death. She walked through these halls with a smile and open heart, teaching those who knew her well that life was to be lived.

Although she was a dedicated teacher, that was not all there was to her life. She was also an avid golf fan, played tennis, and travelled to faraway places to learn more about the different cultures of the world. In fact, she was only a few credits shy of becoming certified to teach Spanish, and was already fluent in many languages, including Greek and Chinese. Yet however busy she was, she was always ready to take time to be with her students if they needed extra help or just someone to talk to.

A scholar herself, she understood the needs of all her students. If there was something wrong at home, or you were simply having a bad day, she would listen and encourage you to go on with a more hopeful outlook than before. She showered her students with praise, and also christened each with a nickname during the duration of the school year. Ms. Michopoulos was, and still remains, a constant source of strength, and a spirit of hope.

As Kristin Offt reflects, "If there was one thing that struck me the most about her was her enthusiasm....I remember numerous classes when she would start to sing and dance around the room. She lived each day to the fullest." She strived to make peace between everyone, hoping that the lessons she taught in the classroom concerning respect and trust expanded to the world at large. She believed that communication was the key, and at the heart of this, that foreign language was an invaluable tool. In effect, Ms. Michopoulos was a teacher who lived to help her students.

"I remember being inducted into the Societe, and having to memorize the club motto: 'Une personne qui sait deux langues en vaut deux,' or, a person who knows two languages is worth twice as much. How true that is for her." Ms. Michopoulos will always be remembered as a role model, a person to admire, and in that, someone whose footsteps we should follow. So with all that we have to offer, we give her our thanks.

MORP

On Saturday, September 14, Chelmsford High kicked off the beginning of the school year with the annual MORP dance. Between the hours of 7 and 11, high school students forgot the stresses of the new year and relaxed. Everyone got in on it, even the DJ and teacher chaperones were caught dancing and having a good time. All the classes came together for this event, bringing along a feeling of unity.

When the night was finally over, everyone was looking forward to the rest of the year, anxiously awaiting social events as pleasing as the MORP.

Katie and Tara ham it up for the camera

Louie and Christina are glad YOU came

Rachel doesn't let chores get in the way of fun!

These two groups smile pretty for the camera

These girls are having so much fun!

These two are all smiles

Even the DJ is getting into it!

SPIRIT WEEK

The last few days before Thanksgiving, as our parents and relatives were baking and cleaning in preparation for the holidays, we here at Chelmsford High were making our own plans--on how to win Spirit Week.

Between November 16 and 22, we wore an excess of strange articles of clothing, painstakingly created murals and posters, and collected all our change in the name of school spirit. It was quite a showdown, and the battles were close. But when the tallies had been counted, there was one obvious winner. The senior class took away the honor of being #1, leaving everyone else behind. From the Powder Puff to Penny Wars, the class of 1997 proved that they have what it takes to be King of the Jungle.

Boys' Cross Country

The boys' cross country team had a remarkable season. Under captains Doug Welch and Jason Andrews, as well as Coach Bill Christman, they ran all the way to the standing of MVC champions. Standouts Mike Curran and Sean McCarthy added a lot to this exceptional team, and Pat Walsh always gave 100%. Juniors Jeff Gallant and Kevin Curtain returned for a strong performance, and Steve Wright, as always, gave the team its heart.

Great job, boys, and may next year's team follow in your footsteps!

Girls' Cross Country

The Cross Country season is through
With a whopping record of 6-2
Under the reign of "Happy Jack" Lang,
We started each race with the sound of a "bang!"

Striving to make each of us a running machine,
Were our two captains, Karen Bell and Liz
Keane.

Katie brought good luck ribbons for our hair.
Finding a more energized runner than Kerry is rare.

In Westford, Laura lost her way,
And Amy brought a smile to practice each day.

From Stacia we learned to give it our all,
While Jen never let our spirits fall

Kristie, the House, could move any football team,
Alicia was fast, and the enemy she did cream.
Cari showed us how to cool off from the summer
heat,

And Stoner proved to be hard to beat.
Holly was a really fun gal,
And Crocker made the best running pal.
Lyndsey and Kim were each a star
Helena and Michelle can run real far.

And boys, you may have had an undefeated season,

But we beat you in T.P.Wars, and here's the reason:

It may sound foolish, it may sound sappy,
But we ran hard, and we ran happy.

Boys' Soccer

One could not say that we had a tremendously successful season standins-wise, but there is more to a team than just its record. We had heart, we had desire, we had the "eye of the tiger."

Our coaching was that of unparalleled genius, Coach Morgan had a knack for putting our players in never-before-seen combinations out on the field. I am sure that everyone on the team will recall with much fondness the exhilaration we all felt after completing a successful "weave" or after a magnificently executed "4 man crossing drill". Besides said glories on the practice field, we also experienced our share of successes during actual games: our victory over Andover will be forgotten by nary a soul; defeating Methuen in our rematch under the lights caused a fit of rapture to spread like wildfire through the crowd (all twenty people). In all seriousness, it was a great season, one in which the team truly bonded. Best of luck to next year's team-- and have fun at double sessions boys!

Girls' Soccer

This year's season was disappointing but full of fun. Our team possessed so much skill, but the scores never displayed it. Most of the teams we faced were extremely advanced and although our team had just as much individual skill as other teams, we suffered in the "TEAM" aspect of the game. Coach Rigazio gave us everything she could: knowledge, friendship, and a love for soccer, but we just couldn't pull it together. Although many people think that the record of a team is all that matters, they are wrong because what truly matters is what you learn from the season and the fun memories that you take from the season. Our team definitely had its share of "monkey" fun. I know that none of us will ever forget Mystery Weekend, and all the other memories of the season. Good luck to next year's team.

Golf

The golf team had its best season in reason years with a stellar record of 10-4-2. We successfully maintained positive camaraderie which had been lacking for several seasons. On top of all that, we finished second in the MVC behind Andover and placed sixth at the state qualifier. The strong play of Jon Steiman, Dave Robinson, Brian Carnes, and John Learson had much to do with the team's success. Despite losing six seniors from the starting rotation, next year looks promising with the likes of Colin "the Mac Daddy" MacDonald, "Big" Mikey Carnes, Jamie "Troy O" Leary, and Tim "I have no nickname" Coit returning. The golf team would like to thank Coach Tague, Assistant Coach Doyle, and Mr. MacDonald for all their help. Also we would like to thank Chelmsford Country Club for the use of the course.

Field Hockey

Our 1996 field hockey season overall went well. We ranked second in MVC's and qualified for the state tournament for the fourth year in a row. We had a lot of fun times on and off the field. We will never forget looking for "Lammy" at Fletcher's or the countless suicides during doubles. We owe many thanks to our coach who heped us in many ways. Good luck next year guys-- take it all the way.

Girls' Swimming and Diving

"Julius Casear, Romeo, we're the team that's on the go." With a final record of 8-1-0, that was an understatement. Our new head and assistant coaches, Harriet Kinnett and Kathy Howe guided us to a victorious season where we were MVC champions, and runners up in both the North Section and the state.

Tri-captains Jenelle Bryan, Lauren McKenzie, and Emily Moloney led the team in building a family of best friends. We cheered our hearts out, danced with the rival teams, and dyed our hairs various shades of red. It was thanks to every girl's positive attitude, hard work, and dedication to the team that the Lady Lions were able to have a blast while dominating the state.

The days flew by, each one forming a closer friendship or funny joke. As swimmers and divers, we were all friends. In short, it was an incredible, memorable season; the pride of the Lady Lions lives on.

Girls' Volleyball

The Lion's girls' volleyball team had a great season. We all played very well together, and this was shown through a record of 14-5. Throughout the season, we went through numerous line-up changes that would have created a problem for most teams, but the Lions handled these changes with ease. Through hours of grueling practice and helpful scrimmages, the Lions improved immensely. Anyone could recognize the intense team spirit by the crazy outfits we wore to school, the loud voices and reading the numerous signs we hung in the hallways on game days. Each team member played their own important role to contribute to the team. Every game the Lions won, they won together as a team. They were together as a team both on and off the court. --The 1996 Girls' Volleyball Team would like to wish the best of luck to the teams in the years to come.--

Football

In a season plagued with injury, disappointment and unfulfilled expectations, our team persevered with winning attitudes and hard work. We may have struggled against the stronger teams of the MVC, but pulled out two emotional, last-second victories against Haverhill and Methuen. It seems funny that all our hard work on the practice fields, in the weight room, and during morning sessions only paid off in two games, but in reality the dedication and commitment united our team as friends. We built unbreakable bonds and shared timeless memories. When all is said and done, our record won't even "amount to a hill of beans."

The coaching staff deserves a special thanks because they did an excellent job in the first year A.C.C., after Coach Caito. Coach Rich, Coach Fletcher, Coach Kastiris, Coach Bove, Coach Sousa, Coach McAndrews, Coach Russo, and, of course, Coach Morgan exemplified god leaders and never quit on us.

Good luck to all the underclassmen, and bring back the winning in maroon and white football.

Majorettes

Majorettes had a great season this year, We had a terrific team. Keep the traditions of pinky good luck, 311, "...soap," and Belly Buddys going! Good luck next year, we'll miss you!

Is this part of their routine, or are they doing the YMCA??

Marching Band

This year the CHS Marching Band had a great season. Under the leadership of Drum Major Bill Mueller, the band, color guard, and majorettes created a wonderful 4 song halftime routine that was a great addition to the weekly football game. The band is very proud of their accomplishments with the experienced upper-classmen as well as the many new members. As Bill said, they "[gave] me the best four years of my life." The band would also like to thank Mr. Kerouack for the dedication and hard work he puts forth to make the us what we are.

Boys' Basketball

This year's basketball team started the season with high expectation. With five returning non-starting seniors, the team knew it was not going to be easy, but hard work and determination (sometimes referred to as guts) were the keys to success. Although plagued with numerous injuries and nail-biting losses, the team that they could compete with anyone in the MVC. Finishing one game under .500, the team nevertheless managed to qualify for the state tournament.

Senior Brendan Trainor and junior Matt Scomis were team co-captains. Other members included seniors: A.K., Christian Erhartic, Andy McCabe, Justin Benoit; juniors: Steve Boss, Jesse Santos, Jesse Santos, Namoo So; sophmores: Adam McCusker, Dan Craig, Dan Hart and Nick Ziminski.

The most important memory for me and, I think, everyone else was that we played hard, had fun and were successful. We are indebted to Coach Micol whose hard work and dedication were reflected in our efforts on the court and in the class room.

Also, many sincere thanks, to Coach Witney, Coach "Sully" Sullivan, and Coach McAndrews. Good luck to all the players and coaches next year.

This season has been a great one- we completed our goals and we were very successful. We were lucky to have such great players and our drills really paid off! Our coach has been really helpful- we couldn't have progressed as much as we did without her.

Our team has grown so close during the last couple of months and we have shared so much together. We define the phrase "Team Spirit". Every one of us has matured since the beginning of the season and we have a lot to be proud of.

"Reach for the stars !!"

Anna Isaak- Ross, Megan Nicholls, Rachel Ferner, and Kristen Gould get ready for a great season.

It looks like this girl has flipped for gymnastics!

What a way to top off our last year of high school gymnastics! We made it all the way to sectionals with some of our highest team scores ever thanks to all of our hardwork of many committed gymnasts. We dealt with some crazy scheduling adjustments to comply with the new; MIAA rules and were sometimes left with only one coach, but we still kept our spirits and scores up.

Our promising freshmen proved to be a great asset to the team. The three new gymnasts gave our all around score a boost up from last year. The sensational sophmores, who make up almost half of our team, covered all four events exceptionally. One sophomore in particular, Catherine Gardner, had an extraordinary year, setting a school record in vault with a 9.0 and obtaining a high score of 35.9 nailing her a steady spot in individual states. Both of our junior gymnasts are great athletes and this year's captians are happy to know they will be leading our team next year. As seniors we not only individually contributed to the team's general scores but, also helped guide the underclassmen inside and outside the gym. We are proud to have had led the CHS gymnastic's team to a glourous victory over Dracut High School, recieving a season high of 128.55, which put us on the road to sectionals. We leave you with sorrow but know that the team will continue to shine even brighter in the coming years. We wish good luck to all of you, we will miss you, and we love you.

Well, what can we say? To basically sum up our season, we went from the last place team to the fastest down the mountain. Who would have thought that the Chelmsford High Ski Team could have improved so much as to be actual "racers"? The past couple years have been a great experience as we developed from "individual" skiers to a racing "team".

Between our dreaded hikes up the mountain, dryland practices, broken drills, and lost baggage because the light was on, it was a terrific season. Through it all we have had a blast. Good luck to all the girls next year; we'll miss you at "The Mighty Nashoba."

CAPTAIN'S QUOTE

This year's hockey team came into the season with many goals. With eight returning seniors and a group of talented underclassmen we were able to achieve all that we strive for. Through all the hard work the team put forth this season, we were able to enjoy ourselves both on and off the ice.

Starting the season 11-0, winning the Wallace Civic Center and Cahoon tournaments, being the first team to qualify for the state tournament, and becoming MVC champions are all stepping stones to our crowning achievement; making the Division IA "Elite Flight" tournament. For making it into the Super Eight, we will always be recognized as the first hockey team in the history of CHS to have the opportunity to play in this prestigious tournament.

Good luck underclassmen for the next season, and continue riding the wave- we caught a good one!

The swim team of 1997 was a very unique team. When I was a freshman, I always looked up to the seniors. This year, my senior year, I found myself looking up to the freshmen. With only three returning seniors this year, our team was young, but strong. Our freshmen were the backbone of our team; we ended the season 7th in the state. I have never seen an underclassman team get so close, and I hope you guys pull together and regain the MVC title next year.

To the departing seniors, Good Luck. We'll never have to shave our legs again. I hope you never forget the memories that the swim team has brought you over the years.

Good Luck to next year's captains Josh and Dave. Our team can only get better, since 10 out of 11 sectional winners are returning next year. Always keep the spirit up and keep the spaghetti suppers.

Head to head competition

Going into the season we had alot of adversities to handle. After losing 6 seniors from last year's team, a lot of the other towns counted us out as one of the teams "to beat." At the start of the season, we found that we found that we were pinned "in a corner," so to speak. We had a problem with getting kids to wrestle at certain weight classes. What helped us through this season more than any other season was the fact that we worked more as a unit and didn't have anyone thinking of themselves. Everyone got up for all the other team members. A great example of this was our meet against Billerica. The whole team was nonstop and ended up winning the meet. Although we didn't win the league championship, the season was still a sucess in eveveryone's eyes.

Student and Athletic Trainers'

Annamarie Hawkings, Doc, Julia Giesler, Sarah Wright, Stacey Herron, and Jessica Moreno are the super trainers for CHS!

The trainers' gang huddles during a football game for a pic before taping up the football players.

It's not just taping people up, it's about helping people and dedication is what we are all about. We are at the trainers room every day. We are at most of the games, and we love what we do.

This has been a very good year for us, and although it's hard work, we enjoy it.

Each trainer brings something special. Stacey brings dedication, Emilie brings a smile and a hug for everyone, Annamarie is hardworking, Tammy shares a laugh, Casey is eager to learn, and Sarah brings leadership.

LET'S MAKE MUSIC...

The gifted musicians prepare to perform.

Joyce and Alicia, turn around, it's your turn to play!

Elaine loves to keep her violin clean!

How do you play a pizza?

Take a break and pose for the camera.

Jodie and Kyle share their music in Austria.

Julie, you're a musician not a model!

STUDENT COUNCIL

"Student Council has definitely been one of my best experiences at CHS. I was able to meet so many cool people from all over the state, and even the country. The conferences were motivating, and I feel like I learned a lot about myself and skills that I'll use for the rest of my life. I'm really glad I got involved right away my freshmen year--I hate to think what I could've missed. -Kara Soghigian

Build me a son, O Lord
And give him humility,
So that he may always remember
The simplicity of true greatness,
The open mind of true wisdom,
And the weakness of true strength.

As we come to the ending of this stage of our lives, we can look back and see how far we have come. I hope that this yearbook will help in doing that now and in the years to come. From our first pep rally to graduation we have grown together, supporting each other in difficult times and rejoicing in each others victories. It has been quite a process.

This book is the result of quite a process as well. Those on staff know how much of a growth experience this has been. I would like to thank all of you for sticking with it, even when it stopped being fun. I want to thank the General Staff, especially Amee Shah and Debbie Turner for their dedication. Underclass Editors Melissa Fournier, Amanda Gilfeather, and Jenelle Rockett were incredibly efficient. Activities Editors Anjali Ramachandra, Tamar Jeknevorian, and Euwha Tran as well as Faculty Editors Hema Krishnan, Reena Shah, and Julie Wong worked many long hours get their sections complete. I'd also like to thank Sports Editors Herpreet Gandhi, Helen Tucker, and Elaine Kuo. Business Editors Linda Chen and Jen Harrington, Photographers Stacey Beauchemin and Dorothy Wu, and Artists Erika Darling and Brad Kelly deserve a hand for their behind the scenes work.. I save my biggest and most sincere thanks and hugs for Assistant Editors Jodie Gilfeather and Pranav Anand and for our advisors Ms. Karin Conrad and Mrs. Mary Donovan. It's been a great year!

Good Luck to All!!!

Nora Meenaghan, Editor-in-Chief
