Headlines of the Millennium

Some of us graced the front page columns, and others the police logs. Each one of us has impacted this community in one way or another. As we look back at the last millennium and ahead to the next, may these pages chronicle all the memories we share and the good times we will never forget.

Hawaiian Paradise

Junior Cotillion

Led down a path lit by tikki lamps, the beautiful beaux and belles made their way into the magical cotillion May 15th, 1999. The class reps hard work had payed off by bringing alive the two cafes with exotic plants, water falls, and goldfish at every table. The night was filled with laughter and dancing as the class of 2000 was swept away into their tropical paradise. When the clock struck 11, the crowd sadly departed bringing their bowls of goldfish as memoirs of that wonderful evening.

4 These two take a moment from a good dance to smile at the camera.

Did I leave my shoes in front of the water-fall...

Stacey, what did you do to your hair !?!?!?

Ingrid knows whose the boss in this couple.

Steve displays his incredible limbo skills for the whole class.

Voula fend off the photographer from stealing her date.

Lisa and Dave boogie down in their tropical paradise.

This group takes a photo to freeze all the wonderful memories of the night...

Stephanie and her date are psyched they got leis free at the door!

Mr. Pasquale...

Making Headlines

What does everyone want to talk about today?" Beginning every class with a short discussion about current events or students' concerns, Mr. Andrew Pasquale demonstrates that he genuinely cares for his students. Mr. Pasquale is the essence of the perfect Calculus teacher, a man who prepares his students for the difficult AP exam in May while remembering to have fun along the way. Spicing up his math curriculum with his usual 'Friday Quizzes' and student presentations, Mr. Pasquale shows his students that math can be fun.

Unlike various other classes, Mr. Pasquale's course is one that students genuinely want to take. He is known for being an incredible teacher, a man that can truly relate to his students' problems--both in real life and in mathematics. Students pile into room 333 every day, ready to tackle another day of the usually dreaded math.

A role model and an inspiration to everyone, Mr. Andrew Pasquale truly deserves the 2000 Lion dedication. Thank you for everything, Mr. Pasquale. You make headlines!

"There is no doubt in my mind that Mr. Pasquale is the best teacher that I had had, and will ever have, in my entire life." --Jonathan Ames

"He possesses an incredible ability to make ordinary, every-day aspects of life seem truly interesting and pertinent....He is an excellent teacher and a kind, admirable person as well."
--Jenny Talbot

"He knows how to teach well, and most importantly, he made class fun and something to look forward to." --Andrew Yang

"He was the teacher who had the biggest impression on me both as a teacher and as a person."
--Josh Hunt

"Mr. Pasquale is a wonderful teacher with a unique teaching style." --Deepa Jumani

The MORP

Chelmsford High School students eagerly piled into the crowded cafeterias as they celebrated the start of another headline making school year. As the rockin' music blared from the speakers, CHS students escaped from their thoughts and worries about school and danced the night away.

HALLOWEEN DANCE

Nicole McTighe

Angel of Mine / Rest in Peace

How does someone start off? What does someone begin to say about a young girl who wanted everything out of life? All we know is that Nicole McTighe had more life inside of her young body than most of us get in a lifetime. Nicole was a very energetic, loving, caring, friendly, helpful person to all that came into her life. She couldn't laugh enough. She couldn't help those who needed it enough. She couldn't even enjoy life enough.

But what Nicole did do is live every day that she had to the fullest. She was a cheerleader, gymnast, rollerblader, skier, and snow boarder. There wasn't anything that Nicole wouldn't or couldn't do if she put her heart and soul into it.

But if we all want to remember her in these ways, we can also say that Nicole had the opportunity to do a little traveling. To most it may not be much, but to us, her brothers, sister, mom, dad, relatives and friends, we can say that Nicole had some fun in her life. Nicole attended a rollerblading camp in Pennsylvania. Also a trip to Pennsylvania to Six Flags with family and a friend. A trip in the eighth grade to Washington D.C., three trips to Disney World were also added to her passport, twice with her family and once with her high school cheering squad.

So if not for the short time that Nicole was with all of us, she definitely had happiness radiating out of her, and this happiness was put right back into all of us. And we will all never, ever forget her for that. For Nicole always had the will to smile, be happy, and to do the same to others. And to all that knew Nicole, we will always remember that wide eyed open smile she possessed, and her ever lasting energy to have fun and a great time.

So from all of us to you Nicole:

Here's all the love you gave to us, right back at ya. For you have given all of us a reason to live, love, enjoy life, and to go on.

Our hearts will be with you up in Heaven until we meet again.

-This was written with all family and friends in mind. But from Mom, Dad, Kurstin, and Michael, we love and will always remember you forever.

A sad goodbye

Everything happens for a reason some say,
But why did it have to end this way.
Words can't explain the way that we feel.
All that has happened does not yet seem real.
Even though she has now gone to a better place,
we will never forget her smiling face.
It's hard to bear all the pain and sorrow.
But we need to stay strong for a better tomorrow.
We need to stay strong through all the sadness and pain until the day we meet again.

Class of 2000 Representatives

How to begin? It's been four long, wonderful years of hard work and dedication to an amazing class. The endless hours of painting spirit walls, blowing up balloons, and building waterfalls brought not only our reps, but our entire class closer together. Under the direction of our two advisors, Mrs. Callaghan and Ms. Devaney, we've had our share of catastrophes and accomplishments, tears and laughter. So thanks to an amazing group of students for making this class the headliners of CHS.

These reps have been hard workers since day one. Over the past four years, they've formed friendships that will last a lifetime.

Is it lord of the class? Patty O is always there for the class of 2000, with or without a shirt...

Our class officers are caught taking a break from all their hard work. These four people will work endless hours to make sure our senior year is the best possible.

These guys know being a class rep is nothing but hard work and dedication to the class. Over the years they've supported the class in every way from junior cotillions to spirit week pep rallies.

Our VP is always up to no good. Pictured here Ethan is conjuring up another great fund raising scheme.

Voula, Katie, and Cookoo Li pause from cutting out palm trees to smile for the camera. The reps spent endless hours on paper flowers and water falls to make sure the evening was perfect.

Class President
Suwei Yu

"Well guys, the curtains are coming down on our careers here at CHS, and it is time to enter the big, "scary" world without anybody holding our hand now. Our four years here has been a period that we will all remember and cherish for the rest of our lives. Coming in as timid little freshmen, we laid down the foundation for a bond that has strengthened and brought us together as a class. Our personality and spirit has made us as unique and unforgettable as the year we represent. It has been my sincere privilege, honor, and pleasure to have served as your class president, and I thank you for giving me this opportunity. I wish all of you good luck on your future endeavors and leave you with this message: 'You may be disappointed if you fail, but you are doomed if you don't try.'"

Class Secretary
Margaret Moloney

"All of the class reps have really come together over these past years. Everyone has made a difference in making every class of 2000 event one to never forget. Thank you Mrs. Callaghan and Ms. Devaney for all your help and support. It's been so much fun and I'll never forget all the fun we've had!"

Class Vice President
Ethan Cushing

"Wow, we made it! Looking at all these new freshmen, it's hard to believe we were once that small. It has been exciting to see our class unify and work together as one. It has been an honor to represent our class as Vice President. When we were juniors, I wondered if our class would be able to live up to the standards that the class of '99 set. Now, it's easy to see that we set our own standards for others to follow. Thanks for all the memories."

Class Treasurer
Doula Kanavas

"Our past four years together have brought good times, hard work, and unforgettable memories. We have set an incredible path for future classes to follow by succeeding in all our attempts. From Friday night football games, to our senior prom, our past can never be replaced. May it, along with all its successes, follow you throughout your lives. Class of 2000, I wish you all the best of luck!"

Remember When...

It's been a long journey here, but the class of 2000 never forgot to have fun along the way. Pictured here are some of our big shot seniors when they were, well, not so big!

Would could forget getting all dressed up for the McCarthy semi-formal?

Even back then, Jeff Langlais was an original kid. Shown here, Pat Friel gives the nutty kid a lift.

Remember how everyone brought their cameras on the last day of eight grade?

Ingrid, Shaina, Julie and Stacey look so enthusiastic about their brownie troop.

Ingrid and Lindsay's birthday party at Canobie Lake Park.

Patty Wong and Amanda Allen take a time out from playing to snap a quick picture.

Michelle Incropera gets a ride around from Shaina

Our class president before he came into the spotlight.

Stephanie, Amy, Kate, Erica, Lilly and Jen show of their glamour girl moves before the big night of the 8th grade semi.

Spirit Week

Chelmsford High Students brimmed with enthusiasm as they celebrated their annual Spirit Week. Students brought in thousands of pennies and canned goods to earn acclaim for their class. Spirit Week finally culminated in the Pep Rally, a celebration preparing Chelmsford for the big football game against Billerica.

Scooch shows off his immense (and wacky) Chelmsford High spirit

CHS Seniors celebrate after winning Spirit Week

Winter Wonderland

Chelmsford High School students were dressed up to the nines as they gathered together to celebrate their respective holidays. With or without dates, students danced the night away in their Winter Wonderland.

Can you believe how crowded the cafe can get at dances? Still, it was one swinging time!

Where did all the dates go? Who cares! These girls don't need their guys around to have a good time.

Sarah has taken Katie under her wing as Drum Major and given the underclassman a sense of fashion as fabulous as her own.

Becca and Andy take a moment out of bustin' out their moves to smile for the camera.

Denae and Stacey always get all the guys. It must be those feathers and boas...

Looks like DJ needs a little support from his friends. All that dancing can get you dehydrated; that's why the seniors are always so generous selling drinks for only fifty cents!

Danielle and Lindsey squeeze together for a quick parting shot before they're off to party hardy the rest of the night.

Eric and his date are so glad the dance didn't get snowed out! For all four (or five) of the seniors' years the dance was only snowed out once.

 From the underclassmen to the senior class
 Never forget L.T... These days were such a blast

Lora, Jocelyn and Sonia were quiet at first, but after a little team lovin' their insecurities soon burst.

The 12 feisty Juniors gave the team so much inspiration through our times of desperation.

 Becca and Christina kept us entertained - although her pointy appendages needed to be tamed.
 our "Wrong Way" Molly would never drop
 While the infamous Becky Buckley still can't stop.

The pre-game stretches were constantly a thrill because Beth and Kavita were always standing still.
 We were lucky to have Michelle as our keeper...
 And Lauren Gardener is an incredible leaper.
 During mid-season Lynn gave us a scare.
 R.W. was worse than Meg's fro-tastic hair.

Our 3 sexy seniors tied it all together with a rainbow ribbon
 During our team room talks of diagrams, D.L. and

 Even Amy Meidell is swell with a bruised liver
 She can deliver.

 We worked hard and it was no surprise when...
 We beat A-TS once, and we did it AGAIN!
 We swam with speed, we swam with heart,
 And in our minds this team will never part.
 Good Luck in the years to come,*

*With every injury you MUST ride the bike,
Even if the hot tub is what you would like.*

*Pulls and strains, fractures and breaks
A little bit of patience is all that it takes*

*Tapings run on time, if the Athletes cooperate
Watch out Genevieve might show up if you are late.*

*We'll take care of you, don't you worry
But, don't expect an eval. if you're in a hurry.*

*So take care of those injuries and keep in shape
We'll see you next season, make no mistake.*

Volleyball

Thou that does not kill us makes us stronger"

The Varsity Volleyball Team had once again proved to their opponents that team spirit can overshadow any adversity. Our season was immensely successful, which concluded with the MVC Division 1 title, defeating arch-rival Dracut. Winning was great, and along the road to success are many memories, including Tutu-Tuesday, Pasta parties and Papa Gino's, 13 second-beatings, "Just Douf it" "What's for dinner?" "I can't believe it's not butter!" Howling Dowling and other nicknames, Malaysian Cherry 2, tye dye, The Dead Beat Club, great captain speeches, bus bonding, Turco the Hair Stylist, holey spandex, siens, and "Row, row, row your boat...Life is but a dream!"

Best of Luck Ladies!

Girls' Cross Country

Run Hard Finish Happy

This season was great
We lost coach Keith
But gained Coach Crane
Doubles were quite tough
45 miles in 4 days
Lifting everyday to tone our muscles
Made our arms and legs strong

Our coaches pushed us beyond all expectations
We as a team were determined to be perfect
With positive attitudes, we never gave up
We pushed ourselves harder each day

We went on many road trips everyday
The beach was hot for our ten mile run
Heartbreak hill was a killer
But paid off with a big win against Haverhill

Team dinners were great
They brought our team close
Our team sleep over was fun
Not everyone came but the boys took their place

Our record was 9-1
We're happy with our season
But sad the seniors are leaving
We hope next year will be the same

Boys' Cross Country

Our long, arduous workouts have paid off with our fourth undefeated season in a row. We had good competition from the Merrimack Valley, but they could not overcome our team unity. With the front four leading the drive: Patrick O'Shaughnessy, Steve Orr, Mike Ryan, and Martin Van Buren all ran consistently this year. Not too far behind were Gerry Loiselle, John O'Connor, Dave Muzykewicz, Chris Eynatian, Phil Putis, and Andy McGuinness giving us the depth we needed to win the MVC's. Thanks Durk and good luck next year!

- Martin Van Buren and
Patrick O'Shaughnessy

Steve Orr and Marty Van Buren share a laugh before preparing themselves for their upcoming race. A large part of this team's success can be credited to the closeness of the team, both in and outside of practices and meets.

"And they're off!" Right from the gun, the Chelmsford boys place themselves at the head of the pack. There must be something to this strategy, as the boys finished the season once again undefeated, and MVC champions.

Field Hockey

Dear Team,

We know that as we look back on our high school years, the 1999 field hockey season will stand out in our hearts. We have always dreamed of remaining MVC champions and having an undefeated season, and we know that none of our dreams would have been reached if it weren't for the heart and dedication of each member of our team. We spent long hours striving to work our hardest and play our best, knowing that the satisfaction of reaching our goals was enough to keep us going.

Over the time we have all spent together, we have created many memorable moments that we will always carry with us. Never forget: catch phrase, truffle, no lights in Brewster, doubles, Coach in pads, team dinners, and visualization!

Lastly, we would like to thank Coach Devaney for all that she has taught us. After being coach for the past four years, she has taught us the importance of believing in ourselves and making the choice to succeed. Without her constant guidance, our dreams would not have been so clear and present in our minds and hearts. "There are many things in life that will catch your eye, but only a few will catch your heart - pursue these."

Good luck next year, keep believing!

Colorguard and Majorettes

As the season comes to an end.
We wait for Chrissie to laugh again.
With Erin dancing by her side and Poorna
Checking out the guys.
The nine of us had a rocky start and Laura
Put us in our spots.
With Becky as our other senior, Ayla always Stayed right near her.
And Katie with all her blankets, ready for
Where the winter takes us.
Vanessa being left handed, made it hard for
Her to understand.
Lora was off at some times, cause she was
Staring at a drummer's behind.
Although the songs were rushed a lot, Jen
Always found a way to her spot.
Many hours we did spend, happily together
Til the end!

We had a fun and hard season!
I just want to wish the others
Good Luck next year!

Hockey

This year we got off to a kind of rocky start. After losing to Tewksbury, we knew we were in for a tougher season than expected. Realizing we needed to work harder, we slowly put things back where they belonged and gained a key win over Matignon and a tie with fourth-ranked Arlington. We have started to catch a pretty good wave and hope to ride it all the way to a state championship. Good luck to underclassmen and coaches. Thanks Mr. Fletcher and Tommy.

Girls Basketball

We could tell you our record, but we're not ones to boast.
 Having fun together is what we enjoyed the most.
 Starting off in Billerica we captured our first victory.
 It just so happens they were this year's rivalry.
 We always go on the practice floor with a goal in mind.
 Then we keep on working until we're happy with what we find.
 In every game, we gave it our all, and sacrificed within.
 But, who was in the bathroom when the game was supposed to begin?
 Whenever we did well, we got a "sweet" reward.
 We all chuckled during the incident with the chalkboard.

Coach and the bus ride did not always mix.
 How about all those bruises from illegal picks!
 Getting to be with each other was by far the best part.
 We laughed, smiled, and always kept each other close to the heart.

Times to remember :

Sports bra practice & Coach K, "doggs up," whippits, JUST DO IT!, messy cake, singing on the bus, hand puppets, Captains' random moonings, the scarf, the van, necklaces, Haverhill warm up trip, Mr. Metz... "The inspiration."

Boys Basketball

This year's boys basketball season did not bring all the success of some past years, but we enjoyed ourselves as much as we could through a struggling year. A few breaks in our direction could have turned us around, but that just did not seem to happen for us. Anyway, we'd like to thank the fans for their support in good times and bad. The learning experience of the underclassmen along with their continued improvement should lead to success in the future.

Best of luck to all future Chelmsford High School basketball players!

Gymnastics

We started our season in '99 with plenty of room for improvement. As the year 2000 came around, we reached one of our all time highs of a 122-25 against rival Dracut. Although we had a young team, we had the right attitude and the strong depth to help us excel in the MVC's. Everyone had their own way of contributing to the team. Our spirits were kept high through inspirational meet quotes and pink Mentos. We would like to thank our two coaches, Angie and Miss Jill, for constantly motivating us and for helping us to strive to give it all we've got. We would also like to thank the team for making it a season to remember. To our "Little Peepers," We Love You!

OVERALL 3-5-0

Being the only senior on the team this year, Jen not only proved a valuable gymnast but also a great role model for the underclassmen.

Lauren knew she had a tough act to follow after her sister's graduation from the team. Yet this junior has come into her own and now sets the standard for others to follow.

Charles Wellman applauds his fellow teammates as he watches the track team clench yet another victory against a fellow MVC team.

Senior stand-out John Silva displays perfect form as he glides over the bar with ease. Early in the season, John had a little high-jump mishap, but he bounced right back, to the delight of the track team.

Brian Dodd focuses his concentration right before his throw. Both the girls and boys track teams will sorely miss their talented senior shot put throwers next year.

Congratulations to the winter track team,

"I firmly believe that any man's finest hour, the greatest fulfillment of all that he holds dear, is that moment when he has worked his heart out in a good cause and lies exhausted on the field of battle- victorious." ... Vince Lombardi.

Throughout this entire season we witnessed 110% drive out of every athlete. We succeeded in everything we put our heart, body, and mind into. MVC CHAMPS!!!! Good luck in the coming spring season and to all the athletes returning next year.

Track was a blast
And flew by so fast
We have our coaches to thank
For #1 is what we rank.
We became champions of the
MVC

And hopefully next year that's What we'll be.

Congratulations to everyone,
Whether you throw, jump, or Run.

We showed the other teams who
Was the best.

Lady Lions flew to the top,
Crushing all the rest.

- Captains Alice Koethe, Molly
Morse, Christine Frenette and Krista Byam.

Molly and Christina are all smiles as they await their upcoming events. Both of these talented young ladies helped out the team enormously with their runs.

Senior Christine Frenette, a three year winter track veteran, keeps her cool as she paces herself during the race.

The quartet of Christine Frenette, Krista Byam, Molly Morse, and Alice Koethe were elected by their teammates to serve as co-captains for this year's team. Keeping such an enormous team together and unified is a formidable task, but these girls rose to the challenge.

Swimming

Congratulations to all the swimmers and divers for capturing another MVC title. Our only loss of the season was St. Johns Prep giving us a record of 8 and 1. The depth and determination of our team allowed us to be undefeated in our MVC conference.

The team was led by the spirited Ian Day-Lewis, the hard working Richard Kinnett, and the determined Jeff Wilson as their tri-captains. With the addition of a strong freshman class, the evergrowing talent of the sophomore and junior classes, and the knowledge of the wise seniors we were able to continue to overcome the burden of history.

The senior class would like to wish the best of luck to our coaches Donald Benson and Mike Wardwell, our amazing team manager Ingrid Skoog, the returning team members, and upcoming freshman with next year's season. Most of all we would like to thank our family and friends for a wonderful four years of Chelmsford High School Swimming.

Richard and Jeff taking a break from swimming, wait..... this is normal for them, they're never in the water! Maybe they're making plans for shaving their hair into duck butts...who knows?

Mike not only tries to concentrate on perfecting his dives, but whether or not he broke the clamp on the board too!

Wrestling

Four hours a day for over ninety days some of Chelmsford High's best athletes came together down in the wrestling room. Lead by four great senior Captains, Coach Rich, Coach Resistance, Coach Hard Guy, and Coach Pork Chop, we had an excellent season. The memories at practice in the locker room and tournaments are endless. Finally the stage was set for the biggest rivalry in wrestling: Lowell vs. Chelmsford for the MVC title. In front of a packed gymnasium at CHS, the Lions destroyed the Red Raiders and won the MVC Championship for the second year. We remained undefeated (12-0). This team will go down as one of the best in history with a two year undefeated record at (30-0). Thanks for all the blood, sweat and tears. Food luck to the Underclassman next year. Keep the streak alive.

"Where did the years go?"

We often ask at moments such as this...

And then we take some quiet time

To dream and reminisce.

To think about the lessons learned,

The love you gave and got,

To ponder challenges you faced

And insights that you brought.

We recollect how, all in all,

You rose to every test...

And, suddenly, we realized

You did your very Best!

REG. # RS1591

Congratulations Class of,

2000

The number '2000' is rendered in a large, bold, black serif font. It is set against a background of four overlapping circles. Each circle contains a stylized fireworks or starburst pattern in a light gray color. The circles are arranged in a slightly overlapping row, with the '2' on the left and the three '0's following.

Editorial

The year 2000 once seemed to us an illusion, a far-away moment in time that could never be reality. It is hard to believe now that the new millennium has turned, and that we will soon begin our lives as independent people. The vast, unobstructed future promises us untried freedoms and a world of opportunity. We move into this future together, some of us reluctantly, and some of us boldly. But regardless of our excitement upon venturing into the world on our own, we will always carry with us the memories of our four high school years.

When we were freshmen, we marveled at the sheer size of Chelmsford High School. The entire atmosphere of high school was foreign to us. Becoming lost in the halls was a frequent occurrence. We were introduced to the concept of "free periods." . . . Who could forget trooping into the library on that special day when you didn't have gym or health, joining other talkative students and laughing at those who were kicked out? Ours is that last class that will remember free periods. Freshman year was on the whole a glorious time . . . We danced in the "uncool" side of the cafeteria, graced the bottom of the bleachers at football games, and made fools of ourselves at the pep rally. We could be as immature as we wanted to be, without the reality of class rank or grades for college looming ahead of us.

As sophomores, we triumphed over the freshmen. Finally, we had surpassed their lowly status! We strutted nonchalantly through the halls, ready to join the ranks of experienced CHS veterans. Sophomore Year was a transitional year; our days were still infused with fun, but the reality of the impending "Junior Year" was beginning to dawn on us. . . . Everyone assured us that Junior Year would be the outmost important year in terms of grades for college. We struggled with our classes, but we enjoyed the benefits of being part of the older half of the school. We had established ourselves by then, acting with confidence and serving as role models for those younger than us.

Now the much-anticipated Senior Year has arrived. For some of us, it has been the most exciting (or the most stressful) of all our years. We now preside over CHS's student body, but next year we will be back where we started, as freshmen. We are on the threshold of yet another beginning in our lives. Time will continue to move in its smooth arc as always, sweeping us forward with or without our consent. The future can appear black and uncertain, but we should forge ahead with optimism, realizing that we have every opportunity to carve ourselves into whoever we want to be. Even as we go our separate ways, our common experiences from the past will bind us together for the rest of our lives. Good luck, Class of 2000! Seek success, whatever you define it to be.

Editorial by Julia Lovett, Class of 2000

For those children of the 50's, 60's, or 70's generation, the year 2000 was the setting of a sci-fi novel. As the 80's and 90's unfolded, fears of the end of the world or the calamities of the Y2K bug which seemed more suitable for the grocery store tabloids became headlines in many respected newspapers. With the graduation of the Class of 2000, the world of the 20th century no longer exists. While sociologists and historians struggle to identify a label for this new generation, the students in the Class of 2000 will define it by their actions, by their decisions.

The American youth of the 50's are stereotyped by the illustrations of Norman Rockwell and TV families of "Father Knows Best" and "Leave It To Beaver". The challenges were those of the Korean War, Sputnik, and the fear of Communism. The 60's brought Elvis, The Beatles, hippies, the questioning of authority, the Vietnam War, political assassinations, and the escalation of the Cold War. The 70's, 80's, and 90's are still too close to yet generalize, but images of Kiss, disco, and hard rock blend with Presidents Jimmy Carter, Ronald Reagan, and Bill Clinton, along with the Gulf War, the fall of the Soviet Union, and the computer revolution.

The young people of the new millennium stand on a threshold of yet-to-be-defined values and lifestyles. The American Dream of the past generations has already been surpassed by many in the 80's and 90's while the plight of poverty continues to rob many of their true potential throughout America and the world. While space stations and computerized conveniences of sci-fi are now realities, so are genocide, hate crimes, and the unraveling of societal values by a prevalence of harmful drugs and violence. Now the world recognizes that the war to end all wars will never be won.

Living in such a setting and challenged by such conflicts, the Class of 2000 takes the stage. The character that they have been chosen to play is that of a citizen of not only America, but of the world. They will be employees of not local businesses, but international conglomerates. Their education will not be measured by college degrees as much as by life-long learning in an ever-changing world.

May the students in the Class of 2000 know that those of the past century continue to be impressed by the strength of character and talents of the young. While the citizens of the Twentieth Century had hoped to leave the world a much better place than recent political and social events reveal, this is the world in which the Class of 2000 will chronicle their achievements and define their future stereotypes. May the Class of 2000 of Chelmsford High School never lose sight of their roots as well as their goals and continue to use their gifts in service to future generations. The town of Chelmsford has demonstrated a caring commitment to its youth by providing them with one of the best educations through its commitment to an exceptional public school system. In pursuing their dreams, may the Class of 2000 pay special tribute to their families and the citizens of Chelmsford by creating a legacy of justice, integrity, and harmony by which this new generation will be defined.
